Cook County and Its Institutions

REVIEW OF ITS BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS AND FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

Aside from a comparatively small number of officials, it is safe to say that very few of the citizens of Chicago possess any practical knowledge of the extent or magnitude of the responsibilities which rest upon the shoulders of the officials of Cook County. These responsibilities lie primarily with the Board of County Commissioners, whose chief executive, President D. D. Healy, stands in a dual capacity as a representative of the people's interests and as the official administrator of county affairs. It is the purpose of this publication to present to the public a concise and reliable exhibit of the business transactions of the county, showing how the vast sums of money required for maintaining the county institutions are raised and how expended, giving in detail the reports of county officials, chiefs of departments, wardens of hospitals, clerks of the various courts, together with the routine observed in the transaction of business in the sheriff's office, the recorder's office, and all other bureaus and departments of the county service.

This is the first attempt that has been made to include in one volume a complete guide or index of the financial and official affairs of Cook County, and the work will be of decided interest to the citizen who desires to familiarize himself with public affairs, and will be of inestimable value to contractors, business houses and attorneys, and to that ever increasing class whose business frequently leads them to the courts or to one of the county institutions. The financial exhibits will be especially valuable, as they will set forth clearly and distinctly the resources and liabilities of the county.

This work is presented to the public in the most attractive typographical manner possible. The letter press is artistic; the paper heavy, finely finished and serviceable; the whole embellished with half-tone engravings representing the finest workmanship attainable, and as it will be used as a ready-reference book by a large and interesting class of citizens, experienced advertisers will readily recognize its value as a medium through which to reach the public. Care has been taken to present advertisements in a neat and attractive manner, and the work will be given a wide circulation in the homes and offices of Chicago's business and professional men. It will also be distributed in the public departments of the larger counties and cities throughout the United States.

ANNUAL REPORT OF HON. DANIEL D. HEALY

President Board of County Commissioners of Cook County.

In presenting the exhaustive audible report of President Healy, it seems essentially germane to the subject to refer in congratulatory terms to the admirable condition to which the affairs of the county have been brought during the administration of President Healy.

The executive ability displayed in producing such commendable results indicate a genius for improvement such as is possessed by few men in so large a degree as has been shown by Mr. Healy. His methods have been so thorough in their completeness that their conception and execution stamp him as an indubitable master in administrative ability. The high order of excellence to which the diverse affairs of the county have been brought at the minimum of expense is in a large measure due to the wise direction of the present honored President of the County Board, and the President is consequently deservedly one of the most praiseworthy heads of the County Board that Cook County has ever had. It would be a work of mere supererogation to extol his efficiency and conscientious fidelity to the interests committed to his zealous care. Among those who have kept themselves informed of his plans and achievements for the betterment of the affairs of Cook County, they—and their name is legion—regard him as a decidedly unique President, admirably adapted for the office which he has so signally dignified during his incumbency of it.

THE REPORT—IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

At the beginning of the year I submitted a statement showing the resources and liabilities of the County, and such other information as seemed to me to be for the best interests of the County. I feel gratified that my recommendations during the past year have been so well received and, generally, favorably acted upon.

THE COUNTY COURT HOUSE.

The congested condition of all the offices in the Court House, the increase in the volume of business of the County in all its branches is proof conclusive of the great need of more room in this building in order to properly accommodate the public business. Careful consideration has been given to the suggestion to build two additional stories to the present structure and thus secure the needed room.

CITY AN ILLEGAL OCCUPANT.

This was finally deemed inadvisable at this time, in view of the fact that legal proceedings are now pending in the courts against the City of Chicago, as to its illegal occupancy with a building for city purposes of the west half of block 39, original town of Chicago, the title to which rests in Cook County. Pending a decision of the case the imperative demand for additional court room has been met by renting in the Chicago Opera House such rooms as were necessary for holding courts.

SANITARY IMPROVEMENTS.

During the past year the entire sanitary condition of the Court House has been overhauled, and all old plumbing torn out and the system changed and replaced with the latest improved sanitary fixtures. Owing to the massive construction of the building, the securing of proper ventilation and light has proven a knotty problem. This has, however, been solved during the past year; the whole plan of ventilation has been changed, and a new system of pipes, flues and ventilators through the walls into all rooms has been put in, which is now in successful operation.

Electric lights have been placed in the halls, which, with the introduction of pure air and light and the improved sanitary condition, all that could be reasonably expected has been accomplished.

THE COUNTY HOSPITAL.

This institution has been taxed to its fullest capacity during the past year, owing to the natural increase growing out of an increased population and a large number of people attracted here expecting to find employment at high and remunerative wages, failing and disappointed, and without friends and means, through want and exposure, fell sick and thus found refuge in the County Hospital and became a charge upon the County. These conditions necessitated increased appropriations both for the Hospital, Poor House and County Agent's outdoor relief. I do not now see that these conditions will change or decrease during the coming year.

ADDITIONAL FACILITIES.

Protection to the public, as well as humanity to the afflicted from contagious diseases, proves the wisdom of the timely action in the erection and equipment of the new Hospital Pavilion addition to the County Hospital, set apart for the care and treatment of contagious diseases.

The new Detention Hospital is admirably adapted to the purpose intended. The accommodations for the insane and dependent children pending their weekly examinations by the Court, which are held in the building, are ample and fitted with modern conveniences. The consolidation of the Detention Hospital with the County Hospital, under the management of the Warden of the Hospital, has resulted in greater efficiency, better discipline and a reducing of expenses.

The electric equipment has been made efficient by removing all old mains and wires from the tunnel and replacing them with new mains and wires; the grounds are lighted with arc lights; the passenger elevators in the Administration Building and the freight elevators in the east and west corridors of the Hospital have been overhauled and thoroughly repaired; the interior of the Administration Building has been painted and decorated, and the stairways repaired. The entire Hospital plant has been improved by such repairs throughout as were found necessary to keep the institution in first-class condition.

HOSPITAL LABORATORY—A GREAT DESIDERATUM.

In accordance with the report of your Committee under date of March 25, the Superintendent of Public Service was instructed to fit up a Clinic Laboratory at the County Hospital for scientific and experimental purposes, the cost and maintenance of the same to be paid from the funds received by the Warden from the sale of clinic tickets, donations, etc., and providing that no expense be incurred without first being authorized by the Board. The establishment of this branch of medicine in the Hospital was urgently advocated by the Hospital Medical Staff as essential and necessary and in line with the advancement of medical science in the treatment of diseases by microscopical examination of bacteria of diseases and the manufacture of serum for treatment of tuberculosis, erysipelas, etc., and the manufacture of anti-toxin for diphtheria and other contagious diseases, as well as keeping and preserving specimens for information of the House Physicians and Medical Staff. It is hoped that the Cook County Clinic Laboratory will prove beneficial.

COUNTY MANUFACTURING OF DRUGS.

During the year, by advice of your Committee, you have now in successful operation, under the direction of a competent pharmacist, a department for the manufacture of drugs and chemicals. This departure from the original method of purchasing outright in the market all drugs required in the Hospital is now an assured success, not only from an economical standpoint, but insures a higher grade and a purer quality of drugs at less expense.

MERITED COMMENDATION.

Warden Graham's business management has proven him to be a patient and efficient officer.

The County Morgue was planned and constructed to accommodate the needs of the County and City for years to come. It is the largest and best adapted building of its kind in this country.

CARE OF THE INSANE.

The Board has, by placing the Insane Asylum and Poor House under the management of a General Superintendent, charged with the conduct of its business affairs and the discipline of its employes, done much to maintain the deservedly high standard in which it stands as compared with other similar institutions.

The control and treatment of patients in this institution is now, for the first time, under the sole management of an able corps of physicians, appointed by reason of their fitness to treat this class of cases; and this has resulted in a largely increased percentage of cures. This is especially gratifying when we take into consideration the fact that the only class of cases the State Institutions will receive from the County are those whose maladies show some evidence of yielding to treatment and ultimate recovery.

In the selection of attendants to care for the unfortunate charges, intelligence and humanity have been considered as the first qualifications for those positions, and great care has been exercised in each case in their selection.

COMPETENT MEDICAL STAFF.

The Committee appointed, under the resolution of Commissioner Allen to recommend a Supervising Medical Staff, to have charge of the medical treatment and care of the patients in the County Insane Asylum, submitted to the Board resolutions as their report, under date of September 23, 1895, and recommended Dr. Richard Dewey, Dr. Sanger Brown and Dr. Archibald Church be selected as the Supervising Medical Staff. I would recommend that Dr. D. W. Lewis and Dr. Wm. Cuthbertson be selected to serve as said Supervising Medical Staff for the term expiring on the first Monday of October, 1896. This Medical Staff has been authorized to make rules and regulations governing the resident physicians, nurses and attendants, and the care and treatment of the patients; such rules and regulations to be approved by this Board before becoming operative. They are empowered to inspect and inquire into the condition of the Institution and the medical treatment of the inmates.

The gentlemen I have above suggested to act as the Medical Staff are recognized by the medical profession as eminent authority in the treatment of this particular class of diseases. From this Staff this Board may reasonably hope to receive valuable suggestions and recommendations. By frequent visits to the Institution their presence alone will exert an excellent influence, and I confidently predict good results from their supervision.

VARIOUS REPAIRS, ETC.

During the year nine old boilers have been taken out and replaced with nine new boilers, with fittings complete, and such repairs made to the heating apparatus as to insure comfort.

A new fire pump has been added to the machinery equipment, and the necessary hose provided for fire protection.

DETACHED WARD, COOK COUNTY INSANE ASYLUM.

An ample supply of water is now assured by the laying of an 8-inch main from the City main supply pipe at Irving Park to and in the grounds of the institution. Fire plugs and connections have been placed in the grounds and buildings at convenient points in case of emergency.

The buildings have been improved and kept in good repair, and by placing the receipts and disbursements of all supplies and the control of the employes under the direct supervision of a business manager, many abuses have been corrected, economy secured, and the service and discipline improved.

The excellent condition of the Dunning institutions reflects credit upon General Superintendent Morgan's business management and his able assistants, Drs. McGrew, Johnson, Kearney and Ferguson, of the Insane Asylum, and Drs. Crowe, Ospray and Crowley, of the Poor House. Chief Engineer Quinn has given valuable service and has made many improvements in his department.

THE POOR HOUSE.

This institution is one of the most difficult of proper management. Many persons who have no right to be charges upon the County seek this asylum as a home for the winter. Such as are physically able to perform manual labor are given suitable tasks in the building and watching the premises. Such employment, however, is limited to the necessary requirements of the institution from day to day, and can only be regarded as a means of something for idle hands to do. As a large number of the inmates are apparently incapable to attend to their own wants, such persons require more than ordinary skill and experience to manage without trouble. The bad element, always present in such an institution, is eliminated as soon as possible, it being the only means by which deserving cases can be cared for.

THE COUNTY FARM.

During the present year the County Farm has yielded a large amount of supplies for the use of the Dunning institutions. The land is increasing in value, and its products fully pay the County for the amount invested at market prices.

It furnished supplies during the present year, at market prices, to the value of $5,776.47.

CREDIT DULY ACCORDED.

The duties of the County Agent are exacting, and require the most careful attention and watchfulness to see that the large amount of money is honestly and properly expended, and that it only goes to those who are worthy and entitled to relief. Agent George F. Oleson deserves the highest credit for the able manner in which he has conducted this department, as also does his efficient assistant, Charles Pasdeloup.

It seems to me one of the most difficult problems this Board has to contend with is the proper expenditure of the money appropriated for the care and relief of the poor.

INTERESTING STATISTICS.

In the appropriation for the present year there was set aside for the supplies for the County Agent's Department, $100,000; for salaries, $25,000. These sums will be entirely used, and are hardly sufficient to meet the most urgent calls upon this department. In addition, there was appropriated $14,275 for out-door relief in the country towns. These figures show that this Board will pay out this year $140,000 in caring for the needy poor.

These figures do not include the cost of keeping the paupers at the Poor House. It is a fact, established by the records at the County Agent's office, that the greater share of this money is used during the six months commencing October 1 and ending March 31. The same is true in regard to the increased numbers who have

BOARD OF COOK COUNTY CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS.

SAMUEL M. BURDETT.

EDWARD D. NORTHAM.

JAMES D. MORRISON.

to be provided for at the Poor House. This condition exists largely from the fact that so many men willing to work cannot find employment during the winter months, and are not able to earn wages high enough during the summer to carry them and their families through a severe winter.

The County Agent's report for October shows that the total number of families aided was 1,477. Of this number 592 were married men, 15 widowers and 2 single men. The Poor House report shows a daily average of about 800 men.

October being the first month when real needs of the poor commence to demand attention, the figures of this month are not near so large as the other months, when it becomes colder and their needs greater.

SOME PERTINENT SUGGESTIONS.

These figures will show that during October Cook County wholly or in part supported in round numbers between 1,400 and 1,500 men. The coming five months the number will be larger, probably increased at least 50 per cent. For this large amount of money so expended Cook County receives nothing in return.

It has occurred to me that some plan might be devised whereby Cook County might receive some value for this amount of money. Taking these figures, it would seem only fair to say that during the winter months the County has 500 able-bodied men who could earn their living if a way was provided for them to do so.

Could not these men be put to work on the streets keeping them free from snow and mud in connection with the City street cleaning department, the County to pay them a small sum, equivalent to what it now costs to care for them?

Would not the City authorities co-operate with this Board in some manner whereby the men able to work, who are supported by Cook County, should render some service for what they receive?

Would not the men asking charity be more willing to avail themselves of some such arrangement rather than be classed as paupers?

I submit the matter to your careful consideration.

COUNTY ATTORNEY.

The County Attorney has from time to time reported to this Board the status and condition of all litigation now pending in the various courts in which Cook County is interested. Mr. Iles is entitled to great credit for the skill and energy which he has shown in the conduct of the Legal Department of the County.

Assistant County Attorney William F. Struckman has charge of that branch of the County Attorney's office pertaining to insane cases and dependent children brought before the County Court. In the discharge of this trust he has given faithful attention to public interests.

COUNTY PHYSICIAN.

The County Physician has charge of the insane committed to the Detention Hospital pending their examination and disposal by the County Court, as well as the care and welfare of dependent children coming through the County Agent's office. To these duties are added the medical attention and treatment of the prisoners in the County Jail. To Dr. Fortner I cheerfully accord praise for the efficient manner in which he has discharged these duties.

COOK COUNTY NORMAL SCHOOL.

The Cook County Normal School grounds consist of 17.12 acres described as the west half of the southeast quarter of Sec. 21, T. 38, N. R. 14 E. of the 3d P. M. Ten acres of this property was deeded by L. W. Beck and wife for Normal School purposes, April 24, 1860. The County has the abstract of title, continued to March 28, 1892. The maintenance of the Normal School amounts to an average cost of

FRANK J. GAULTER,
Clerk Circuit Court.

$36,000 per year. The Normal School is a problem which this Board should solve. I would recommend that the buildings and a portion of the grounds be turned over to the City Board of Education with the understanding that they maintain a normal school for the education of teachers for our public schools. The balance of this property should be subdivided and disposed of, the money to be used for building purposes. I have no doubt but that from $150,000 to $200,000 would be received from the sale of this property, and in the meantime relieve the County from the expense of maintaining said school.

THE OLD JAIL BUILDING.

The Old Jail Building has been for years a just cause of complaint and criticism. The law regards innocent all prisoners committed to the jail, until properly tried and convicted, as provided by law. It is just that in the interim between commitment and trial the prisoners should be treated with humanity and their health preserved. In order to secure this the new wing of the County Jail has been erected at a cost of about $100,000. It is estimated that it will require an additional outlay of $50,000 or $60,000 to furnish the cells and complete the new structure. This expense must be provided for in the next annual appropriation bill. The County will then have a jail fully equal to the real demands of justice.

THE NEW CRIMINAL COURT BUILDING.

During the past year this building has been completed by such changes in the arrangement of offices and court rooms as tended to facilitate the dispatch of public business. Furniture, where needed, has been provided, and the building in all its details is now equipped with modern appliances, and is a credit to the County and a model of convenience.

THE COUNTY JUDICIARY.

I believe the time has come when this Board and the people of this County should take the necessary steps towards urging the next General Assembly to amend the law in relation to the Criminal Court of Cook County. I think the present system whereby the Circuit and Superior Judges serve in the Criminal Court through a system of rotation should be abolished and three Judges selected whose sole duty should be confined to the Criminal Court. A Judge who is presiding in the Circuit or Superior Court and compelled to break off and go to the Criminal Court for three months, necessarily has more or less business pertaining to the Circuit or Superior Court to which he has to give some time while presiding at the Criminal Court; and his calendar stands still while he is in the Criminal Court. The present system is a source of delay to the common law and chancery litigants, and to the prompt trial of criminal cases. It is a source of expense to the County by reason of increased amount of jurors' salaries and cost of dieting prisoners whose cases are delayed, and in many other ways.

By having Judges who devote their entire time to the trial of criminal cases they would be able to dispatch a much greater volume of business in a term than is done under the present system, and the Circuit and Superior Court Judges would be able to give their entire time to the duties of their own Courts, which would work to the great advantage of the County and persons having business in the Courts.

In this connection I think it would be well to consider the question of an additional Judge for the County Court, or devise some method to relieve the County Court from its present condition.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

The law creating the Cook County Civil Service Commission became operative July 1, and in accordance with its provisions I appointed three commissioners and reported my action to this Board at the time.

E. J. MAGERSTADT,
Clerk Criminal Court.

APPLICATIONS FOR POSITIONS.

During the five months of its existence the Commission has received over 1,500 applications for positions and has examined over 1,200 of the applicants. All the present employes of the County coming under the jurisdiction of this Board, and hence under the jurisdiction of the Civil Service Commission are on the classified list, and the benefits and advantages of civil service as applied to our employes are fast making themselves felt and the ultimate success of civil service is assured. The Commissioners have given careful attention to the study of the Act, and have been earnest in their efforts to administer the law according to its terms and provisions and in a practical, business-like manner.

NURSES AT COUNTY HOSPITAL.

In this connection I deem it my duty to call your attention to the question of nurses at the County Hospital. As you know, during this year they have been furnished by a contract with the Illinois Training School for Nurses at a cost of $22,200 for the year. In addition to this they have had the services of quite a number of convalescent patients who were able to leave the hospital but were retained there, assisting the nurses. At times the County has been called upon to bear the cost of feeding and caring for as high as from thirty to forty of this class.

This contract expires on the 31st day of this month and some different arrangement will have to be made for the coming year. Under the opinion of the County Attorney, dated September 17, the nurses and the medical staff at the Hospital will necessarily have to be appointed under the Act relating to the Civil Service Commission, and will be under the jurisdiction of that Board. I think it a question to be well considered whether the County cannot establish a Training School for nurses at the Hospital, whereby as high or higher standard may be obtained as can be had under a contract with a private school.

At present under the system in vogue the same nurses only stay a few months as a rule, and are then sent to other charges more profitable to the school. By this method the County Hospital, as to a large per cent of the nurses, is simply a primary or kindergarten department. Nurses appointed after a competitive examination and retaining their positions as long as they performed their duty and receiving a proper compensation, in my judgment, would render better service than those now there without compensation simply for the necessary experience to fit them for other positions. As to the Hospital Staff and this question of nurses I would recommend either the Hospital Committee or a special Committee at once take the matter up and submit a plan to this Board for its approval before the consideration of the appropriation bill.

A SEASONABLE EULOGY.

The office of the Superintendent of Public Service deserves more than a passing notice. This department is charged with the expenditure of nearly three-quarters of a million dollars annually, and I challenge any person to make a just criticism of the manner in which this office is conducted, or to deny the statement that every cent of the County's money paid out is only paid out for full value received. The aim of the Superintendent and his able assistant has been to encourage all the honest competition possible, and it cannot be said that any clique or ring of merchants, salesmen or contractors have any inside influence in the matter of furnishing Cook County with supplies. In this office none but business methods prevail, and depending, as this Board has to do, upon the Superintendent to so great an extent for the proper expenditure of so large a sum of money, it is most gratifying to me, and it must be to the members of this Board, to have the office filled by so capable and efficient an officer as Dr. T. N. Jamieson.

ABIJAH O. COOPER,
Clerk Probate Court.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

The Industrial School trouble has lately been so thoroughly aired that you are all conversant with all questions pertaining to the relation of this County to the various Industrial Schools. I only suggest that before appropriating any sum to them next year a careful investigation be made, and proper restrictions thrown around such appropriations as will insure their expenditure for the purpose for which this Board intends them.

RESOURCES OF COOK COUNTY.

From the certificate of the County Clerk the equalized valuation of all classes of property in Cook County for the year 1895 is as follows :

Real estate .....	$213,029,549
Personal property .....	38,531,171
Railroad property .....	19,183,816
Total .....	$270,745,536

To maintain the County Government, including the payment of principal and interest of the bonded debt incurred by the County since August 8, 1870, for the year 1896, the County is allowed by law to levy as a tax an amount equal to 75 cents on the $100 equalized valuation of all taxable property for the year 1895, being the last previous assessment, which amount will be $2,030,584.02 for the year 1896.

ESTIMATED RECEIPTS FOR 1896.

The estimated receipts of County Offices in and for the year 1896 over and above the salaries legally to be paid out of said receipts will be about as follows :

STEPHEN D. GRIFFIN,
Clerk Superior Court.

It is evident from this showing, in order to keep within the County's resources, it will be necessary to curtail the expenses in every branch of the service. How this shall be accomplished without impairing the service will not only tax your best judgment, but will require your patient attention. The Circuit Judges can very materially aid in this direction by careful consideration of the question of how many assistants they allow the different departments under the provisions of the law.

This Board will be called on in the very near future to renew all its insurance policies now in force. This will require an additional outlay of about $20,000 for premiums.

LEGISLATIVE BUCCANEERING.

The last General Assembly passed an Act entitled, "An Act to tax gifts, legacies, inheritances," etc., which is now a law upon our statute books. This law provides that the tax so collected shall be paid to the State and is to be used for State purposes.

I do not wish to find fault with the Legislature that passed this law nor with the law itself, but I think this Board should ask the next General Assembly to repeal the above law and in its place pass an Act fixing a uniform tax upon all legacies or inheritances over the sum of $50,000 or $100,000, the tax so collected in each county in the State to be applied toward the support of the charitable institutions in the county, or to defraying the expenses the said county is called upon to pay to maintain its charges in charitable institutions. I see no reason why a tax raised in this manner would not be sufficient in time to bear the greater share of the cost of our charitable institutions, nor do I see why a tax raised in this manner should go to support the State government. It has so many other sources from which it can properly raise revenue, such as corporations, franchises, etc., that it should leave the sum derived from an inheritance or legacy tax to be expended as I have indicated.

A MERITORIOUS PROJECT.

In following the plan I have above outlined no poor person would be called upon to pay any sum or tax for the support of our poor unfortunates who become public charges, for certainly any heir receiving an inheritance of $50,000 or $100,000 could well afford to pay a reasonable sum as a tax, which would go for the purposes above stated, and no one would consider it any hardship to such heir; on the other hand, it being a notorious and conceded fact that the poor man is taxed much higher in proportion than the rich man, it necessarily follows that the poor pay a larger amount in proportion to their means than the rich toward the cost of maintaining our public charitable institutions.

By the method I have above suggested, the poor man will almost be entirely relieved from contributing to the maintenance of our public charitable institutions.

AN IMPORTANT PROPOSITION.

The City of Chicago, in my opinion, ought to bear some of the burdens which the County is now obliged to provide for; it should take care of the sick and maimed poor, and the State should take care of the insane and dependent children. With the limited revenues of the County we are called on to provide Court Houses and quarters for all County officers, a Jail, a Hospital, an Insane Asylum, a Poor House, a Morgue, and to pay for the running of all courts of record, State's Attorney's office, Coroner, Sheriff, and take care of the poor and insane and dependent children, pay for the clothing and necessities for Cook County's inmates at the State charity institutions, and board for the prisoners sent to the Bridewell by the Criminal Court.

This Board should take action to secure an amendment to the present law by the Legislature in regard to fees and salaries of the State's Attorney's office, so that

CHARLES N. PETERS,
Chief Deputy Sheriff.

JOHN L. WHITMAN,
Jailer Cook County.

JAMES PEASE,
Sheriff of Cook County.

all moneys collected for the forfeiture of bail bonds be paid into the County Treasury. It is manifestly unjust that no accounting of this source of revenues should be made to the County.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the members of this Board for the prompt attendance at the meetings of this Board and their faithful discharge of their duties as members of the various committees, and their courtesy to me as President of the Board.

Referring to the estimate of our resources for the coming year, I trust it will be the aim of every member in considering the annual appropriation bill to see that every cent is placed where it will be of the most benefit to the citizens and taxpayers of Cook County and expended in a practical, business-like manner.

Rule 1—Regular meetings shall be held on the first Monday of December, January, February, March, June and September in each year at 2 p. m. At the hour of meeting the President shall call the Board to order and instruct the Clerk to call the roll and note the absentees.

Rule 2—A majority of all the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Should a quorum not be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned from day to day until a quorum is obtained.

Rule 3—The regular order of business, unless otherwise directed by the Board, shall be as follows:

- (1) Reading and approving the records of the proceedings of the last meeting.
- (2) Unfinished business.
- (3) Communications and petitions.
- (4) Reports from standing committees.
- (5) Reports from special committees.
- (6) Resolutions and motions.

PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD.

Rule 4—It shall be the duty of the President to enforce all the rules for the government of the several Institutions and Departments of Cook County, and the neglect or refusal of any officer or employe to observe said rules shall be sufficient cause for the suspension or removal of said officer or employe by the President. And any vacancy so created shall be filled in the manner in which the appointment was originally made, provided nothing herein shall be construed to evade the rules of Civil Service.

He shall call special meetings of the Board whenever, in his opinion, the same may be necessary, or upon the written request of five members of the Board, and he shall preside at all meetings of the Board, and generally perform all the duties of a presiding officer.

He shall preserve order and decorum; shall decide all questions of order—subject, however, to an appeal from his decision; shall refuse to entertain any proposition involving the expenditure of money unless the same is reduced to writing, with the signature in full of the member offering the same endorsed thereon; shall order a call of the yeas and nays upon all appropriation resolutions, and upon all propositions whereby any liability, directly or indirectly, may be created, and upon all other propositions, whenever the same is demanded by any member of the Board; and whenever a report of a committee or any proposition involving the expenditure of more than $500 has been divided for the purpose of considering it item by item, and after the last item has been disposed of, he shall, whether a motion to that effect be made or not, put the question: Shall the report (resolution or motion, as the case may be) be adopted as a whole? And thereupon he shall order a call of the yeas and nays.

He shall have the same privilege of voting as other Commissioners, but he shall not have a deciding vote in case of a tie upon any proposition upon which he has voted as Commissioner.

He shall personally examine all requisitions for supplies, and if, in his judgment, any of the articles mentioned are unnecessary or extravagant, he shall strike them out and report such action to Public Service Committee for their action, and the sub-committees of the different institutions and departments shall limit the supplies for the various institutions and departments of the County, so that the several appropriations shall not become exhausted before the close of each fiscal year.

He shall, from time to time, personally inspect the books, papers and accounts of the Superintendent of Public Service and of the Comptroller, and in case of the failure of either of said officers to conduct his office in a proper manner, or to comply with the provisions of law or rules of the Board defining their respective duties, he shall promptly report the same to the Board.

He shall sign all contracts for supplies, material and work, after the same has been approved by the Board. Provided, however, that no contract shall be executed or liability incurred until he shall have ascertained that there is sufficient money in the proper fund to liquidate such contract or liability.

He shall, on or before the 31st day of December of each year, by and with the advice and consent of the Board, appoint a Superintendent of Public Service, a Superintendent of the Institutions at Dunning, including the Poor Farm, a Warden of the County Hospital, a County Agent, a County Attorney, a County Physician, a County Architect, a Custodian of the Court House, a Custodian of the Criminal Court Building, and a Committee Clerk of the County Board, all of whom shall be subject to these rules.

He shall appoint the Chairman of the Committee on Public Service, and shall appoint all Standing Committees of the Board, except the Committee on Public Service, subject to the approval of the Board, and shall be ex-officio a member of all Committees. And shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as are provided by law.

In the absence of the President the Board shall elect a presiding officer pro tempore, who shall, during such absence or inability, possess all the powers and perform all the duties imposed upon said President by law and by these rules.

It shall also be the duty of said Committee, together with the President, to superintend and direct the Comptroller in the management of his office, and see that he shall open and keep in a clear, methodical manner, a complete set of books, which shall show in detail every appropriation for the fiscal

All claims against the County which have been audited by the Comptroller shall be referred to the Finance Committee, and its action thereon shall be specifically reported in writing to the Board for final action.

Said Committee shall direct the Comptroller to furnish monthly to the Board statements of the condition of each fund, showing the amount appropriated and the amount expended, and the balance remaining, to the end that no indebtedness shall be created in excess of the several amounts appropriated. All matters pertaining to taxes and financial affairs of the County generally shall be referred to the Finance Committee.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC SERVICE.

Rule 6—There shall be a committee on Public Service, which shall comprise all the members of the Board, the chairman of which shall be ex-officio member of all sub-committees thereof. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Public Service, subject to the approval of the Board, to devise rules for the government of the several County institutions and departments of public service, which shall include a system of visitation and inspection by said Committee, and for this purpose there may be appointed from its members the requisite number of Sub-Committees.

All supplies shall be purchased and issued to the several institutions and departments of the County only upon requisitions, which shall be made in triplicate, and no requisition calling for supplies exceeding the sum of $500 shall be divided by any officer or committee for the purpose of enabling such officer or committee to purchase the same without having first received the approval of the Board.

Said record shall be open at all times to the inspection of the members of the Board and to the public.

All the reports of committees shall be in writing and contain the facts of the matter submitted, with such recommendations as may be deemed proper, and the report of the Committee on Finance shall be signed by the members of the committee who approve the same. And the report of the Committee on Public Service shall be signed by the chairman of such committee only. Any member or members may submit a minority report, either upon the whole or any part of any report presented.

All supplies not included in contracts made for one year shall be included in the contracts made for three months, when the quantity and kind can be accurately described, and also when bids can be intelligently made from samples submitted. Requisitions for contract goods in cases of emergency may be filled by the Superintendent of Public Service, upon the approval of the President, without submitting the same to the Board. The Superintendent of Public Service shall keep accurate books of account, under the direction of the President, so that the several amounts expended may be deducted from the amount appropriated for each specific purpose, and he shall keep the heads of the several institutions and departments fully advised, so that their expenditures shall not exceed the amounts appropriated. It shall also be his duty to direct in what manner the books shall be kept in the several institutions, and also in the office of the County Agent, so far as they relate to supplies, and he shall supervise and inspect the same from time to time, and report to the Board of Commissioners the result of such investigations.

He shall also keep a daily record of all bills for goods delivered, and after certifying to the correctness of such bills, he shall deliver them to the Comptroller.

ANNUAL REPORT OF JAMES L. MONAGHAN

Deputy Comptroller of Cook County.

By no means the least important of the County offices, and one from which the most grave and weighty responsibilities are inseparable, is that of Deputy Comptroller, now held by James L. Monaghan. The present incumbent succeeded the present President of the County Board, Hon. Daniel D. Healy, who was concededly the best Deputy Comptroller that Cook County has ever had. The mantle of Deputy Comptroller Healy could not have fallen upon more meritorious shoulders than those of Deputy Comptroller Monaghan, and he has distinguished himself by being an eminently worthy successor of his brilliant and unexcelled predecessor. How worthily he has acquitted himself of the duties devolving upon him is abundantly demonstrated by his able conduct of the affairs of the Comptroller's office since he assumed charge of it. The success of his efforts as a faithful conservator of Cook County's interests has been gratifying and pronounced, and strengthens the general conviction that he is emphatically the right man in the right place. As Deputy County Comptroller, Mr. Monaghan has shown conspicuous ability and a praiseworthy attention to the business of his office. In fine, Mr. Monaghan's administration of this office leaves nothing to be desired in the way of completeness and efficiency. His report as Deputy Comptroller given below will repay a careful study.

THE APPROPRIATION.

The appropriation for the County Agent's Office amounted to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) and was all judiciously expended for relief purposes together with the necessary salary fund of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00).

A REMARKABLE EXHIBIT.

With the same amount of money as was expended in 1895, 42,788 poor families were taken care of, as against 36,500 taken care of in 1894. Consequently the money relieved 6,288 more poor families in the one year than it did in the other. This speaks volumes for the efficiency of the service.

THE COOK COUNTY HOSPITAL.

THE COOK COUNTY HOSPITAL

Is the institution created by the residents of Cook County, Illinois, for the purpose of caring for the sick in the County who have not the means for securing medical treatment elsewhere. It is under the control, therefore, of the people of the County, who act through the Cook County Commissioners elected by them. The Cook County Commissioners in their turn appoint from their own body a hospital committee upon whom falls the immediate oversight of the affairs of the Hospital. One thousand patients can be cared for comfortably at one time.

EXECUTIVE STAFF.

The executive head is the Warden, who is appointed by the County Commissioners. His term of office is one year.

VISITING MEDICAL STAFF.

The treatment of patients is supervised by a visiting staff of physicians, consisting of three distinct medical boards, each representing the Regular, the Homeopathic, and the Eclectic Schools of Medicine, respectively. Members are appointed by the County Commissioners for one year, and receive no money compensation. The number of appointments is as follows: Regular School, 38; Homeopathic School, 10; Eclectic School, 8. This number may be increased in case of need by the boards themselves, and it is customary for the regular-school board to select a number of specialists in different branches to act with them. The physicians so elected are not members of the board. The Regular board meets on the last Thursday of each month, at four o'clock in the afternoon; the Homeopathic board meets on the last secular day of each month.

HOUSE MEDICAL STAFF.

The House Medical Staff (composed of the Internes) is determined by competitive examination, any graduate, male or female, of any medical school in Cook County being eligible. The term of office is eighteen months, and there is no compensation other than board and room furnished at the hospital. The interns are divided as follows: Regular, 16; Homeopathic, 4; Eclectic, 4. The examination for the internships, which is held during the spring of each year, covers the following subjects: (1) Anatomy, (2) Physiology, (3) Materia Medica and Therapeutics, (4) Chemistry, (5) Gynecology, (6) Obstetrics, (7) Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, (8) Pathology, (9) Medicine, (10) Surgery. The manner of conducting the Regular examination is determined by a committee appointed by the Board. A second committee, similarly appointed, chooses from the Board three examiners upon each subject, who prepare the questions, and correct the papers without knowing the names of the writers of the papers examined. The examinations for the Homeopathic and Eclectic internships are similarly conducted.

The internship service is divided into a Junior, a Middle, and a Senior period of six months each. The Junior period includes three months of service in the surgical and medical wards respectively. The Middle period includes six weeks in the Obstetrical wards, six weeks in the Gynecological, Ophthalmological and Otological, six in the Contagious, and six in the Examining Room and the Dermatological and Laryngological wards. The Senior period includes three months in the surgical and medical wards respectively.

ADMISSION OF PATIENTS.

Any resident of Cook County whose condition demands continuous rest and treatment, and who is unable to pay for medical service elsewhere is admissible. Out-patients (dispensary patients) are not treated at the hospital. The sole judges of admissibility are the examining physicians at the Hospital, composed of members of the house staff. If the condition of a patient is such as to entitle him to Hospital treatment, there is little danger of his being refused admission for any reason, unless it be obviously a case of attempted imposition; and, while the Hospital is intended for the very poor, no emergency case is turned away. Patients are admitted at any time of day or night.

DIVISION OF PATIENTS FOR TREATMENT.

By a strictly enforced system, patients are distributed among the schools of medicine in the Hospital in such manner that the regular school gets a certain nineteen, the Homeopathic a certain six, and the Eclectic a certain five patients in every thirty, the character of the cases falling to each school being wholly a matter of chance. The patient has no option as to the school under which he shall be treated.

EQUALITY OF PATIENTS.

The Hospital facilities are in all cases absolutely free to patients. Under no circumstances are they allowed to pay for service or for special favors. Each patient is on precisely the same footing as every other. The plan of providing especially desirable accommodations in consideration of the payment of special fees is unknown in the Hospital; the most favorable accommodations are used for those who need them most.

PRIVILEGES OF PHYSICIANS.

Physicians have no special privileges. There is no arrangement by which an outside physician may supervise the treatment of particular patients at the Hospital.

EXCLUDED DISEASES.

Chronic diseases, including Syphilis, Pulmonary Tuberculosis, and Insanity, are not treated. Smallpox cases are sent to the smallpox hospital. Contagious diseases are treated in a ward which is absolutely isolated from the rest of the Hospital. On Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, of each week, certain selected chronic cases, as well as partially disabled, or convalescing, patients who do not require nursing, are sent to the County Infirmary at Dunning.

THE NURSES.

The nurses are students of the Illinois Training School for Nurses, and are furnished under contract with that school.

VISITING DAYS.

Wednesdays and Sundays from two to four in the afternoon are the regular visiting days. Visitors may be admitted for special reasons, however, at any time.

THE MORGUE.

The morgue, which is contained in a separate building, in the rear of the Hospital, is open for inspection by the public at all times. It is used for the reception of bodies from the County at large, as well as from the Hospital. Unclaimed bodies are allowed to remain in the morgue at least six weeks and the clothing taken from them is kept longer. Photographs of the unknown dead are taken. A description of lost friends may be filed with the clerk in charge. Burials are made in the County burial grounds at Dunning.

DETENTION HOSPITAL.

Although situated upon the same plot of ground and under the same executive management as the County Hospital, the Detention Hospital is rather an adjunct of the County and State insane asylums. It is the place for the incarceration of patients awaiting trial for admission into an insane asylum, and is in charge of the County Physician, who must reside in the building. Upon the certification of any reputable physician, or upon the filing of a petition from the patient himself or his friends, that he is a proper candidate for an asylum, he may be received at the Hospital to await trial. The Hospital is also the place for the detention and care of dependent children, pending the determination by the court of the person, or institution, which shall be his responsible guardian. Trials are held Thursday mornings, at nine o'clock, before a County Judge and Jury of six men, one of whom must be a physician. Two physicians are appointed by the County Judge to act in the capacity of chairmen of these juries. The County Physician is present as counselor.

CLINICAL INSTRUCTION.

Instruction is given in the amphitheatre in the Hospital building, and students are never allowed to enter the wards. The vast number of patients affords the greatest variety of illustration for the use of clinical instructors. A fee of five dollars per annum is charged under-graduate medical students for the privilege of attending clinical instruction. Women as well as men, are admitted to the amphitheatre.

COOK COUNTY INSTITUTIONS AT DUNNING.

The Cook County Institutions at Dunning are considered as among the most prominent of the County's many important charges. It is here the Insane Asylum is situated, surrounded by a number of buildings which have been erected from time to time as the necessity for them became apparent. The grounds comprise 257 acres, situated ten miles from the Court House on the Chicago, Milwaukee, & St. Paul and the Chicago & Northwestern Railways. A portion of the grounds is set apart for what is known as the County Farm. The Insane Asylum and detached buildings are finely situated, their general appearance being greatly improved by a somewhat pretentious display of landscape gardening. The farm and its management receives careful consideration at the hands of the officials at Dunning. Potatoes form the chief product, 7,000 bushels being raised during the past year, the entire crop being used by the inmates and attendants at the institution. During 1895 the farm also produced 1,050 bushels of oats, 1,500 bushels of corn, and hay sufficient to feed the eighteen horses employed on the grounds. The farm also produced 60,000 pounds of pork in 1895 as against 13,000 pounds in 1894. As will be seen, the buildings are quite numerous, and may be classified as follows:

THE INSANE ASYLUM.

This comprises the main building which has six wings, surrounded by lakes, ponds, drives and spacious grounds, the grounds affording room in addition for four cottages, a boiler and engine room and a building containing a dance hall.

AUTOPSY HOUSE.

Contiguous to which is a morgue, a green house, a laundry building and barns.

DETACHED BUILDINGS.

Consisting of store rooms, drug store, ice house, paint shop, stables, carriage sheds and tool house.

POOR HOUSE.

Consisting of the main or Administration Building with nine wings and buildings for boiler and engine rooms, ice house, oil storage house and a confinement cottage.

In all there are 246 names on the pay rolls at Dunning, while the institution is run on a per capita cost of 22½ cents per inmate. The official staff is as follows:

A NOTABLE EVENT.

Some of the most horrifying catastrophies which have ever occurred in this country have been caused by the burning of public institutions. The isolated situation of these institutions render them an exceedingly easy prey to flames when once under headway, unless wise discrimination and forethought are exercised in providing ample appliances for meeting such emergencies. How near the County Insane Asylum recently came to being a prey to a terrible conflagration is perhaps known to but few of our citizens. On the night of January 2 last, at 11:40 o'clock, a fire broke out in the laundry, a detached building about two hundred feet to the rear of the Insane Asylum. At the time the wind was blowing at the rate of forty-five miles an hour, and to make matters worse it was intensely cold, the thermometer registering eight degrees below zero. When the alarm was sounded it was learned that the direction of the wind was straight towards the Asylum. The fire company, which is made up of the employes of the various institutions, the chief engineer acting as marshal, was promptly on hand, and lost no time in getting to work. The great Worthington pump, which is a late and invaluable addition to Dunning, was connected with the city mains, and in a short time the fire was completely under control. Superintendent Morgan, in speaking of the occurrence, freely admitted that if it were not for the Worthington Pump and the sufficient water supply furnished by the city water mains, he had no doubt that all of the buildings of the institution would have been destroyed, and that the loss of life from fire and exposure would have been very great. He said that he had been through a number of battles during the civil war, but that not even at Gettysburg did he experience such awful sensations as he did during the comparatively brief time on that terrible night of January 2, when it appeared as though the County Institutions at Dunning would all be destroyed, with the loss of life of scores of helpless human beings which would inevitably follow. To his excited imagination it appeared as though the wind was blowing at the rate of 100 miles an hour, and that the thermometer indicated forty degrees below zero. The Worthington Pump erected at Dunning is one of the latest improved automatic fire patterns, of 150 pounds pressure, throws 1,300 gallons of water per minute, and requires the combined exertions of four men in holding the nozzle when in operation. It is the freely expressed opinion of all connected with the facts in the case that the County officials never made a more timely or more profitable investment than when they purchased the Worthington Pump. Its greatest value is due to the fact that it works like a charm when work is required of it, and that it is always ready for immediate use.

ANNUAL REPORT OF ROBERT S. ILES,

County Attorney of Cook County.

AN IMPORTANT OFFICE.

The duties devolving upon the County Attorney are often onerous and exacting, necessitating cool judgment, much legal erudition with a thorough familiarity with the principles of jurisprudence and the axioms of well grounded legal ratiocination. There must also be unswerving impregnable fidelity in the County Law Department to the interests of the County. These attributes are possessed to an eminently satisfactory degree by County Attorney Iles, who has demonstrated beyond the peradventure of a doubt his capability, proficiency and competency in the office he holds. The report of Mr. Iles for 1895, presented herewith, is pregnant with interest:

In no case at law has the County been defeated during the year, and in but two cases in chancery have adverse decisions been rendered, and the County has been ready for trial in all cases when reached, and where cases have been continued it has been at the instance of the plaintiffs and not upon motion of the County.

In the matter of the numerous riot claims filed against the County, I secured assistance, as per resolution of the Board, and made a thorough investigation and have a complete record upon each and every claim, and am fully prepared for trial, and the only riot claims now pending are the suits of C., B. & Q. and the Wabash Rys.

COUNTY OF COOK VS. CITY OF CHICAGO.

There is now pending in the Circuit Court of Cook County, the suit of the County of Cook vs. the City of Chicago, which is an action in ejectment to recover possession of the premises occupied by the City for a City Hall, otherwise known as the west half of block 39 of the original City of Chicago.

The suit was entered in the Circuit Court of Cook County, March 14, 1894, and on notice to the City was placed on the short cause calendar of said court April 27, 1894.

On May 22, 1894, the City filed a bill against the County, praying a perpetual injunction against the County restraining the prosecution of the said ejectment suit, to which bill a general demurrer was filed on July 7, 1894, and upon hearing the demurrer was overruled and a decree of perpetual injunction entered July 14, 1894. On Dec. 10, 1894, a writ of error was issued out of the Supreme Court at Ottawa, and on Jan. 1, 1895, I found the matter pending in the Supreme Court to be heard at the March term thereof at Ottawa, Illinois.

I forthwith prepared the case for hearing and filed the brief and abstract, in the preparation of which Mr. Edward M. Harris assisted, and the case was taken by the court on March 20, 1895, and at the October term, 1895, the court returned an opinion, reversing the decree of the Circuit Court, remanding the cause and ordering the injunction dismissed, and upon filing the mandate from the Supreme Court, the suit was dismissed accordingly. The original ejectment suit is now pending ready to be heard upon the short cause calendar of the Circuit Court, and will be heard as soon as reached.

The decision of the Supreme Court is a signal victory for the County, and while it does not end the litigation, opens the way for its speedy termination, and requires the City of Chicago to stand or fall upon the contract of 1872, and makes the question a purely legal one and sets at rest all questions of equitable rights or estoppel, and I am of the opinion that the ultimate decision will be in favor of the County.

In addition to the above, there is now pending in the Supreme Court at Ottawa, the case of Christ. Dahnke vs. the People, upon a writ of error to the Appellate Court of the First District. This suit was pending in the Appellate Court Jan. 1, 1895. The case was decided adversely to the appellant at the March term of said Appellate Court and was taken to the Supreme Court upon writ of error. The question raised was new and novel, and it is difficult to forecast the final result.

In addition to the above suits, the case of Julia Anderson, alias Julia Weir, against John C. Schubert, Clerk of the Criminal Court of Cook County, deserves some mention (although it is not a County case), for the reason that it affects the fees of the Clerk of the Criminal Court, in which the County is indirectly interested.

This suit was an action on motion of the plaintiff in the Criminal Court to compel the clerk to docket her case (which was an appeal from a fine for violation of a city ordinance), without the payment by her of the docket fee.

The suit was commenced April 14, 1894, and the motion being overruled in the Criminal Court, an appeal was taken to the Appellate Court of the First District, where the finding of the Criminal Court was sustained. The case was thereupon appealed by the plaintiff to the Supreme Court of the Central Grand Division and heard at the January term, 1895, and at the October term, 1895, an opinion was handed down reversing the decision of the Appellate Court.

The result of the decision is to deprive the Clerk of the Criminal Court of a large portion of his fees, unless they can be collected from the bondsmen of the appellants in case of conviction, and will materially reduce the revenues of his office, for the reason that a large number of appeals are taken from the findings of police justices of the City of Chicago.

I have recommended to the Clerk of the Criminal Court as a partial remedy, that in each instance where a conviction is had or where a suit is dismissed at the appellant's cost, he should apply forthwith for an execution for his costs and proceed at once against the bondsmen, and have tendered the services of the County Law Department to that end, and have consulted with the City Law Department to secure its co-operation in requiring good bonds and enforcing the collection of costs.

CHANCERY DOCKET.

To this docket are assigned all cases relative to taxes, which during the year has required a large amount of work, and the results have been satisfactory.

From January 1 to July 1 the department was in charge of Assistant County Attorney Edward H. Morris, who represented the County in an able manner and tried several hardy contested cases. His report is herewith submitted.

From July 1 to September 1 no assistant was provided, during which time judgment for delinquent real estate taxes were taken, and a remarkably large number of objections were filed thereto, all of which were contested by the County Attorney in person.

On September 15 Mr. Wm. F. Carroll was temporarily engaged to defend the numerous chancery suits pending, and rendered most efficient service until December 1, at which time Mr. Frank L. Shepard was assigned to the department under the Civil Service rules, and is now in charge and is prosecuting the work with vigor.

In addition to defending against injunction proceedings, we have represented the County Treasurer in all matters for the collection of taxes and in applications for judgment of delinquent taxes, and have outlined a mode of procedure for the collection of taxes, which I am confident will result in the collection of a large amount usually uncollected. In the matter of objections filed in the County Court on application for judgment for general taxes strict proof was required in every case, and as a result the majority of the objections were overruled and the taxes collected, amounting to a very large sum.

At the suggestion of the Honorable C. C. Kohlsaat, Judge of the Probate Court, I made a careful examination of the records of the Probate Court for the purpose of ascertaining the number of cases of escheat shown by the records of the Clerk's office and have a large amount of data upon that subject and there are now pending two estates, in which the County Attorney has entered his appearance.

The case of Catherine Glasser, in which about $20,000 is in the hands of the Public Administrator awaiting to be distributed, and in which to date no proof of heirship has been made; also the case of Alexina C. Toon vs. Cook County et al., which is a bill for partition, in which it is claimed that a portion of the real estate has escheated to the County.

For further particulars in regard to the suits in chancery disposed of during the year and the matters still pending, I respectfully refer you to the report of Assistant County Attorney Frank L. Shepard, which is submitted herewith.

DEPENDENT DEPARTMENT.

This is an important department, inasmuch as it deals directly with persons who would become County charges unless assisted by their relatives. They are principally women and children, or aged and decrepit persons. The work is very perplexing and requires the exercise of great patience and discretion on the part of the attorney in charge, for many of the complaints are without just cause, but all who come must be patiently heard, and every worthy case relieved where relatives within the prescribed degree of consanguinity can be found, who are able to support them.

In a very large majority of cases, this is brought about by agreement without resort to the court, but in incorrigible cases suit is entered, and a trial had, and the parties compelled to abide by the decision of the court.

During the year 110 support cases were tried, sixteen of which were dismissed, and seventeen are still pending, and some 500 cases have been provided for by agreement. In the prosecution of the work, from twenty-five to fifty persons are interviewed each day, and a goodly number of the persons against whom orders are entered have to be brought into court on attachment, to enforce payment. Hence, taken all in all, this is a very hard worked department.

In the beginning of the year, it was under the charge of Mr. Wm. F. Struckmann, together with the "quasi-criminal business," and "insane cases and dependent children," but owing to the volume of business I deemed it expedient to divide the work and form a separate department for support cases, which I did, and placed it in charge of Mr. R. A. L. Dick, who managed it alone until about July 20, at which time I assigned Mr. Herbert Wright to assist him, and on October 18 I relieved Mr. Dick and placed Mr. Wright in charge, who conducted the work in a highly satisfactory manner, until December 1, at which time he was relieved, and Mr. Wm. H. Ward assigned to the position under the Civil Service rules.

QUASI-CRIMINAL AND INSANE CASES AND DEPENDENT CHILDREN.

Mr. Wm. F. Struckmann was assigned to this department January 1, and has been in charge since that date. He has managed it in an able and efficient manner, and has in all instances worked to the best interests of the County. His report is very complete, and I herewith submit it for your consideration.

It will be seen by Mr. Struckman's report that a large portion of his work has been upon quasi-criminal cases that belong strictly to the State's Attorney's office, the County not being directly interested therein. Hence Mr. Struckmann has been serving in two capacities, and has taken his instructions in County matters from the County Attorney and in State cases from the State's Attorney. No conflict of authority has arisen, and none is likely to arise, for the County Attorney clearly understands that he has no jurisdiction in a State case, except upon request of the State's Attorney, but it does lead to some embarrassment occasionally, inasmuch as it is not generally understood that the County Attorney in such matters acts only upon authority of the State's Attorney.

I therefore desire instructions from your honorable body as to whether the County Attorney shall continue to assume the responsibility of State cases on the quasi-criminal calendar, and would suggest that a conference be had with the State's Attorney.

In the matter of dependent children, I have directed that strict proof be required in each instance, in order that where relatives can be found who are charged by law with their support, that they may be summoned into court to show cause why they should not be required to support them; and the same order also pertains to insane cases.

STATE'S ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

Pursuant to resolution adopted January 7, 1895, I made a thorough examination of the State's Attorney's office, and with the assistance of an expert accountant made a transcript of that part of the record which shows the fees, fines and forfeitures, and from such examination found that the records in the Criminal Court and State's Attorney's office agree substantially with the State's Attorney's reports as filed with the County Clerk. Hence, the State's Attorney's reports may be taken as a basis from which to compute the amounts collected upon fines, penalties and forfeitures as well as the amount of fees charged by the State's Attorney.

I also found that a very large sum in number and amount of fines and forfeitures had been suspended or reduced, but was unable to ascertain from the record the reason why such reductions were made or fines suspended. The record in most instances being simply: "Upon motion of the State's Attorney, etc."

STATE'S ATTORNEY'S REPORTS.

Upon March 28, 1895, I submitted a partial report giving a summary of the recapitulation of the State's Attorney's reports from December 5, 1892, to February 28, 1895, which shows the amounts collected by the State's Attorney and the disposition made of the same, from which it appears that the State's Attorney has shown and claims in each report a balance due him in excess of all amounts collected, as follows:

To cash collected.....		40,204 04
		55,954 04
Balance due February 28, 1895 .....	$	11,245 86

The State's Attorney has filed no additional report with the County Clerk since February 28, 1895, and as my investigation closed March 28, I have no means of knowing the state of his office since that date.

From the above synopsis it will be seen that the State's Attorney interprets the law allowing fees to him as providing personal compensation in addition to his salary ; in which interpretation I do not concur, but am of the opinion that under the law the fees should be applied in the payment of the expenses of his office aside from his own salary, and that within the intent of the law the salary of $7,000 per year provided is all the personal compensation to which he is entitled, and that if the spirit of the law were observed the County appropriation for the support of the State's Attorney's office would be much smaller than at present required.

NEED OF REVISION.

I am further of the opinion that the law relating to the State's Attorney's office and the Criminal Court of Cook County should be revised and amended, so that no misunderstanding could possibly arise as to the application of fees, and that all forfeitures, fines and penalties to be made payable to the County Treasurer, and by him distributed to the persons or funds entitled thereto. And that it be expressly provided, that the sum allowed the State's Attorney for salary be his only compensation, except that he be allowed a commission of 10 per cent for the collection of fines and forfeitures. Further, that no fine or forfeiture should be remitted or set aside, except upon affidavit showing the facts upon which the motion to suspend, remit or set aside is based ; and that the fees now allowed the State's Attorney be made payable to the Clerk of the Criminal Court, and be accounted for by him as other fees ; and that the number of assistants required by the State's Attorney be determined by the Judges of the Courts in the same manner as the assistants of County officials are now determined ; and that the proceeds from fees, fines and forfeitures be applied to the support of the State's Attorney's office and the office of the Clerk of the Criminal Court, and that any balance and residue remaining thereafter be paid to the County Superintendent of Public Instruction for the use of the public schools.

MEASURES OF ECONOMY.

Public economy requires that every office, in so far as is possible, should be self-sustaining, and I think it nothing more than right that the criminal classes should pay the expense of criminal prosecution, and to that end would suggest that some specific remedy should be provided to meet the evil arising from insufficient and worthless bonds in criminal cases.

The above suggestions are made in response to the terms of the resolution ordering the investigation of the State's Attorney's office, and agreeable thereto I prepared several bills embodying the above suggestions, which bills were duly submitted to the Legislature at its last session. The necessity for legislation is apparent from the fact that the present law was enacted before the volume of business in Cook County had reached its present magnitude, and in its express terms does not meet the present necessities of Cook County. And the present practice in the State's Attorney's office is based upon custom and the judgment of the State's Attorney rather than upon any statutory provision.

SWAMP LANDS.

At the request of the Judiciary Committee I investigated the matter of swamp lands belonging to Cook County, and cash indemnity for swamp lands due from the United States government to Cook County, and have a complete transcript of the swamp land selections located in Cook County as originally selected, together with subsequent selections made by I. R. Hitt, State Agent, and have made a detailed report to the said Committee, together with the recommendation that in order to ascertain the exact status of the case, it will be necessary to have certified copies of the proceedings and orders entered in the General Land Office at Washington, D. C., relative to the swamp lands in Cook County and the cash indemnity due; and am of the opinion that but little can be realized under the Swamp Land Act until Congress shall have enacted additional legislation in relation thereto.

In addition to the work above enumerated, I have from time to time rendered opinions upon various matters submitted to me by your honorable body, and the President, and the several committees thereof, and have advised with and counseled the County Treasurer, County Clerk, Superintendent of Schools, and the Clerk of the Criminal Court, and, agreeable to the order of the Board, have systemized the work in the County Law Department, and have the honor to report that each and every department thereof is in good condition and the work in the office completed up to date.

In conclusion, permit me to tender to your honorable body, to the President of the Board, to the several County officials, and the assistants in my department, my sincere thanks for the uniform kindness and ready assistance that has been accorded me in the discharge of my official duties.

Creditor's bill, commenced Nov. 25, 1895.

In matter of Estate of } Probate Court.
Granville S. Ingraham. }

Claim filed for payment of $396.73 taxes.

As per the above statement, the County of Cook has collected in cash during the present year $3,358.42, $493.82 of which has been collected during the present month of December in taxes, which would have been lost to the County but for the successful litigation in the above cases. The County has also been successful in contesting bills for injunction to prevent it from issuing tax deeds for taxes amounting to $1,071.71.

The benefit accruing to the County by the successful termination of a suit involving the payment of taxes is not to be measured alone by the amount involved in that suit. The County's success in a suit deters many from undertaking to avoid the payment of taxes by litigation: whereas, the County's failure in a suit in which it is made a party defendant, or its delay in cases in which it appears as complainant, would lead a host of people to believe that by delay and litigation they might avoid the payment of their just taxes.

The cases now pending are being pushed to trial and a final disposition as rapidly as possible.

My association with you, Mr. Iles, as your first assistant, is to me an honor, and in the discharge of the duties of my department I take great pleasure and satisfaction.

SUPPORT.

Early in the year I was directed to turn over the Support Department to Mr. R. A. L. Dick, and since then, with the exception of the month of November and part of October, have not given that branch any attention. I desire to state, however, that the work required there is, to say the least, not of a pleasant kind. It has been my experience that almost all of the cases brought for support involve family quarrels, and are frequently of such nature that it is hard to decide where justice lies. Some cases are spite work and persecutions, always brought by wives with the intent of worrying their husbands, and it not infrequently happens that they boast that their husbands will be forced to jail. The Support Department is too often used as a dumping ground for collecting agencies and so-called protective associations, for cases in which they find no pecuniary inducements. The work done is necessarily largely of such a nature that no record can be kept thereof and report made. The few cases that are taken to the County Court represent but a small part of the work actually done. Husbands and wives are brought together and their difficulties settled, and children have been persuaded to provide for the aged parents without taking the matter into court.

INSANE CASES AND DEPENDENT CHILDREN.

In the insane and dependent cases it has been my aim to compel payment of cost and maintenance whenever it was possible. In this regard the Judge of the County Court is the sole arbitrator, and he has been largely guided by the report of the County Agent. The County Clerk, by law, is directed to keep a separate docket of these cases, and no record has ever been kept in our office. The money collected is always paid directly to the County Clerk and Sheriff, who account for the same to the County Board. Since the rule adopted by the County Board prohibiting attendants to transfer paid patients the receipts have largely increased, and the Insane Court is nearly, if not quite, self-sustaining.

QUASI-CRIMINAL.

The State's Attorney is responsible for the quasi-criminal calendar in the Criminal Court, but has seen fit to request the County Law Department to take charge of it. He has, however, from time to time, made requests and directions as to the disposition of certain cases, and has tried one, viz: People vs. Eden, No. 11,939 (the barber shop case), himself, which is now pending in the Supreme Court on appeal.

All forfeitures are turned over to him by his direction, and I cannot report as to what disposition has been made of them.

The quasi-criminal calendar is frequently made the agency in bastardy cases, to enforce a settlement or marriage, and it frequently happens that the witnesses cannot be found, or when found, that a settlement or marriage has taken place, in which case the suit must be dismissed for want of prosecution, or on motion of the County. Appeals from Justices are too frequently brought on straw bail, and allowed to be dismissed on general call. It has been my experience that procedendos issued to the Justices are very seldom heard from after they get there. The Justices are very lax in preparing their transcripts and other papers in the cases sent to the Criminal Court, and very few of them pay any attention whatever to the law requiring the names and addresses of witnesses to be returned. Liquor and assault cases generally arise among the poorer class of people, and are settled in some manner pending the appeal. The witnesses move or cannot be found by the Sheriff, and the defendants are generally ready to move for a dismissal. Early in the year I found that witnesses in dramshop cases, even when subpoenaed, refused to come to court. I had attachments issued for such as could be found, with the result that the Liquor Dealers' Association made complaint that the County Law Department was going out of its way in order to prosecute these cases. Since then very few liquor cases have been taken on appeal to the Criminal Court, and when taken there it has been almost impossible to locate the witnesses. In regard to the giving of bonds, I can suggest but one remedy, and that is to change the law so as to require all appeal bonds in appeals from Justices to be approved in the upper courts.

In Wolff vs. Wheeler, at the present term of the Appellate Court, the court sanctioned my action in the court below in dismissing a bastardy case upon payment of costs of court and the tender to the girl, and upon her refusal, the deposit with the clerk to her order, of all that she could recover in case of a favorable verdict and judgment. The case in question had been on trial before Judge Chetlain for two days, and the jury disagreed. The child lived but three days after its birth, and when the case was called for trial again I persuaded the defendant to pay the costs and make the tender and deposit, thinking it useless to waste two days' time in another trial.

Since this decision a similar case arose before Judge Burke, and the complaining witness objected to a dismissal without a trial, but upon the necessary tender being made the Judge dismissed the case.

For some reason, no Judge desires to hear the quasi-criminal calendar, and it is very hard to get one to give it proper attention. During the year there have been four calendars, and I have spent nine weeks in actual jury trials.

In regard to the amount of costs and fines collected, I cannot give an account of the same without an examination of the records of the Clerk's office. Payments are frequently made to the Clerk without my knowledge, but from an examination of my docket, somewhat over $600.00 in costs and fees has been collected during the past year in the cases tried by me.

The following is a synopsis of the work done since January 1, 1895. I desire to state that among the number of cases dismissed on my motion, are twenty-nine against Fred Nibbe, deceased, and among the cases dismissed for want of prosecution are the cases against the Deputy Sheriffs arrested in Lamont on election day in November, 1894.

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE.

A detailed and very interesting report of the business done by the largest office in Cook County.

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE.

County Clerk,
Clerk of the County Court,
Clerk of the County Board,
Comptroller.

PHILIP KNOPP.

Chief Deputy County Clerk.....ROBERT M. SIMON.
Chief Deputy Clerk of County Court.....HENRY L. HERTZ.
Deputy Comptroller.....JAS. L. MONAGHAN.

The office of the County Clerk is without doubt the most important in Cook County, and it is safe to assert that the duties of the County Clerk of Cook County are the most important and responsible of any public officer in the State of Illinois. The County Clerk in addition to having the management and control of the County Clerk's office, acts as Clerk of the County Court, Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, and is Comptroller of the County finance affairs.

The working force of these offices number one hundred and sixty-two clerks, of which eight are employed in the Comptroller's office, seventeen in the office of Clerk of the County Court, and one hundred and thirty-four in the office of the County Clerk. The cost of running these offices exceeding $200,000 per annum, and is divided into the following departments: County Clerk's main office, tax extension department, redemption department, marriage license department, vital statistics department, map department, Clerk of County Court department, Comptroller's department.

MAIN OFFICE.

All business of the County Clerk comes to the office from which it is referred to the proper department.

ELECTIONS.

In this office County election matters are attended to, it being the duty of the County Clerk to call all elections, when made necessary by terms expiring, vacancies occurring, etc. He must have notices printed which states time of election, offices to be filled, etc., and have them properly distributed to the persons charged with posting them.

Certificates of nominations by the various political parties are filed and certified to in this department. After all certificates of nomination are filed the official and specimen ballots are here prepared, ordered printed, together with all other county election stationery, and then properly distributed. After the election the returns are here received and the result is here certified to.

All bonds of elective officers must be filed in this office, also all County Justices of the Peace, Police Magistrates and Constables must here qualify for their respective offices by filing their official bonds for approval and taking the oath of office. A record is kept of such bonds and is open to the public.

JURORS.

The names of all persons selected to serve as petit jurors are written upon small cards in this office and placed in the jury box, which is also kept here, from which they are drawn by the clerks of the various courts as required.

CUSTODIAN OF BACK TAX WARRANTS, ETC.

In this office are kept all Assessors' books when returned by the Assessors of the thirty-three towns in this county. All collectors, tax and special assessment warrants after they have been returned by the County Treasurer and all records of property that has been sold for taxes. The space required to properly store these records is enormous. Notwithstanding the fact that the great fire of 1871 destroyed all records in this office they have since that time accumulated so rapidly that the County Clerk has on several occasions been compelled to ask the County Board for more room in which to store them, and while the office at the present time occupies more than three times the space it did in 1865, and occupies more than one-half of an entire floor of the County Court House, it was with great difficulty that space was secured for last two years' records. At this time the new records number about 800 each year.

TAX EXTENSION DEPARTMENT.

The volume of business done in this department is simply enormous, being probably larger than any public office in the State of Illinois.

Commencing in the month of February of each year they furnish and prepare for the use of each of the various Assessors of the County books in which are copied a list of all lots in their respective towns. This list is made from, and must be compared with, the Collector's warrants of the previous year, so as to get the names of owners and subdivisions that may have been added during the year, after which new subdivisions must be entered, as well as vacations of old subdivisions, street and alley openings, etc. To get some idea of the magnitude of the latter work, it is only necessary to state that in some years 55,000 new descriptions of property have been placed on the Assessors' books.

The number of Assessors' books to be furnished this year is 285, are large volumes which contain about 800,000 descriptions, and must be in the hands of the Assessors not later than May 1 of each year. During the time that the Assessors' books are in the hands of the Assessors, from May to July, the force of this department is greatly reduced, and is employed making documentary records of all evidence on which tax deeds have been issued on property not redeemed from tax sales.

On the return of the two hundred and eighty-odd real estate books and fifty-four personal property books they are footed and cross footed so as to detect any errors that might occur. A tabulated statement of the total assessment is then made and referred to the County Board, who make any changes found necessary by them, returned and are then corrected, and an abstract of same made and transmitted to the State Auditor to be submitted to the Board of Equalization.

The assessment, as made by the various Assessors, is then copied into new books, called Collector's Warrants. These warrants show, first, the names of owners, the legal descriptions of property, with the Assessor's valuation opposite each piece, also the valuation as equalized by the County Board and the State Board of Equalization, then the amounts of taxes under headings which show for which the amounts entered are levied. In this County there are nearly 250 various corporate bodies, such as villages, towns, boards of various kinds, School Directors and other municipal bodies, who have the authority to make appropriations and which is taxed against the people of their respective districts. These are all adjusted in this office, and the total amount of these appropriations last year amounted to $24,000,000, and required 8,750,000 entries in the Collector's Warrants.

After these warrants are completed (December to January) a warrant is issued commanding the various Town Collectors to make the collections as set forth in said books, and are delivered to them upon their filing a bond and giving a receipt for same.

In this department all certificates of sale are written, and last year the number issued was in the vicinity of 75,000, and according to law each of these must be stamped opposite the legal description of the property in the Collector's Warrants for the next year, for which the Clerk receives no fee.

REDEMPTION DEPARTMENT.

This is the unpleasant section of the office, as nearly all persons having business here have some complaint to make about their misfortune in having their property sold for taxes and being forced to pay large rates of interest to redeem same, etc. In addition to that dissatisfied condition of mind, the force allowed to conduct the business of this department is very small (being only seven clerks) and is at times wholly inadequate to carry on the business of the department, in consequence of which the clerks employed in this department come in for a great deal of unjust abuse, while in fact they are the hardest worked force in the service of the County.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE FOR TAXES.

When the taxes on real estate is not paid in July of each year the County Treasurer makes application to the County Court for a judgment against said real estate, and after judgment has been obtained said property is sold for taxes at auction. This sale can be conducted only with the assistance of the County Clerk, whose duty it is to keep a public record of such sales and issue certificates of sale to the purchasers.

REDEMPTION FROM TAX SALE.

Real estate that has been sold as above can be redeemed only through the County Clerk, who receives the amount of taxes and penalties due, issues certificates of redemption, then turns the amount collected over to the purchaser of the real estate sold at the tax sale, less the amount of his redemption fee.

The number of certificates of sale issued last year was in the vicinity of 75,000 and the number of redemptions of real estate from tax sale was 19,792; this means more than 1,600 each month, and taking into consideration the fact that in order to make one redemption a clerk must go through from ten to sixteen books, and sometimes more, this work is simply enormous. An addition to this work this department answers from 3,000 to 5,000 letters each year in reference to property that has been sold for taxes, and in order to prepare an estimate of same, must go through the same labor as making a redemption; notwithstanding the fact that the County Clerk's Office is a fee office, no charge is made for preparing these estimates.

ISSUES DEEDS.

When property that has been sold for taxes has not been redeemed after two years from date of sale, the County Clerk is the only person authorized to issue a deed to said property to the person holding the certificate of sale.

This work is also done in the Redemption Department, and the number of such deeds issued last year was 450.

MARRIAGE LICENSE DEPARTMENT.

Of all the departments in the County Clerk's Office, the one fearing the legend "Marriage Licenses and Naturalization" is probably the one in which the public takes the greatest interest.

The law provides that all persons desiring to have a marriage ceremony performed in Cook County must first obtain a license from the County Clerk.

The business transacted here is yearly assuming greater proportions in due conformity with the growth of the city.

Since the great fire 246,000 licenses have been issued; twenty years ago the number issued each year did not exceed 4,000; since that time there has been a gradual increase, the greatest number issued in one year being 16,500, which occurred "World's Fair Year." Even last year with its financial embarrassment has not in any great degree interfered with the business in this department, the number last year being 15,515.

Record of these licenses has been kept since the fire, and embraces twenty-one large volumes which are kept in a vault alphabetically arranged and have male and female indexes.

NATURALIZATION.

It was not until 1874 that the County Court was authorized to issue naturalization declarations, but since that time the work has grown rapidly and at the present time nearly all Declarations of Intention of persons residing in this County are taken out at this department as this office is considered by most foreigners the only place to apply for their "first papers."

The average number issued each year is now between 2,000 and 3,000; during the year when it became a law that no person could work for the City without first having declared their intentions to become citizens the number reached 8,500. At the present time the County Clerk's vaults contain 80,000 of such registered applicants, comprising twenty-six large volumes.

CERTIFICATES OF MAGISTRACY.

Connected with this same department is still another branch of business that is yearly assuming greater proportions, viz: the verification of notarial signatures to deeds, oaths depositions and so forth; also certificates of magistracy of Justices of the Peace, Police Magistrates, Constables, etc., the County Clerk being the only County official authorized to issue same, his office being the place where all of such officials must register their commissions.

There is a great increase in the number of these officials each year, the number here registered being almost 4,000, and the fact that nearly every State in the Union now requires a County Clerk's certificate under seal to all documents recorded in their respective States, makes it necessary to issue a great number of same, the number last year being 13,095.

VITAL STATISTICS DEPARTMENT.

This department was created in 1877 by an Act of the General Assembly, by virtue of said act creating a State Board of Health, giving said Board complete supervision of the State system of registration of births and deaths, charging them with the duty of prescribing such forms, books, etc., necessary for a registration of vital and mortuary statistics. They also made it the duty of all physicians and accouchers of the State to register their names with the County Clerk of the county in which they reside; also requiring them, under penalty of law, to the County Clerk, within thirty days, all births and deaths which may come under their supervision, upon forms prescribed by the State Board of Health and furnished by the County Clerk.

Since the adoption of this act the County Clerk has kept a register of physicians and accouchers, and at the present time this register shows 6,715 names. He has also kept an official record of all births and all deaths, and is authorized to issue certified copies of returns of births and deaths. All of this work has grown so large that it requires the entire time of two clerks to attend to these duties.

The number of large records now stored in this office, running from 1878 to 1895, are thirty-six of deaths, showing 321,568 deaths; from 1878 to 1895, are thirty-eight of births, showing 392,500 births. The number of deaths in 1895 were almost 30,000; the number of births in 1895 were almost 35,000.

MAP DEPARTMENT.

The Map Department of the County Clerk's office was organized after the great fire of 1871, when all records made previous to that time were destroyed. It then became apparent that this department was necessary, and would be of great value. The loss of all records by fire made it very difficult for this department to organize and obtain the desired maps, as there was only one abstract firm in the city which had copies of these records and were able to furnish the information necessary to construct the maps for this office. But notwithstanding all the obstacles and difficulties that were met, they are now complete, and they show every parcel of land, with their dimensions, in the entire County of Cook ; also all railroads, public roads, rivers, canals, and divisions of land ; also vacations of all descriptions, openings of streets and alleys (provided they are recorded according to the laws of this State). They also show the boundary lines of all incorporated cities, villages, etc.

This department employs four men, who have charge of these self-constructed maps, being taken only from recorded instruments of every township in Cook County. They are large books, and the principal duties of these clerks are to keep said maps posted with all the latest records in the Recorder's Office, so as to give the various departments in the County Clerk's office any legal information necessary to conduct the work of making assessors' books, collectors' warrants, etc.

This department has been found to be of great value to the public, real-estate dealers, surveyors, etc., as they have free access to these maps, and will here be given any information in reference to same desired. In the year 1895 about 600 new recorded instruments relating to maps had to be copied on tracing paper in the Recorder's office by this department, and afterwards entered in the maps of this office, a list of which also must be furnished to the Tax Department previous to May 1 each year, for the purpose of entering same in the various assessors' books, in order to assist said assessors to make the assessments for general taxes, and no changes can be made in the assessors' rolls without the consent of this department. This department also has charge of the maps of the various school districts in the country towns, where each district levies its own taxes for school purposes, and sends same to the County Clerk to be spread on the collectors' warrants for their respective towns said districts being determined by the maps in this department.

Notwithstanding the fact the County Clerk receives no money from the State or from the County, and also does a great amount of work heretofore mentioned without compensation of any kind, the figures below will show that this office not only is self-sustaining, but manages to turn in a balance each year.

CLERK OF THE COUNTY COURT.

The duties of this department are many and varied, the County Court being a court of general and special jurisdiction.

Among the special business of said court may be specified :

The trial of lunatic cases, of which there were 1,141 cases during the past year.

The trial of dependent boys and girls, of which there were 437 cases in the same period.

The trial of deaf, dumb, blind, and feebled minded persons, of which there were 21 cases in same period.

The trial of support cases, of which there were 136 cases, wherein the Clerk of this Court not only performs the usual clerk duties, such as docketing and recording all proceedings and issuing process, but in addition receives and keeps account of all moneys ordered paid, and pays out the same to the parties entitled thereto, all of which necessitates the keeping of a complete set of books and takes up nearly all the time of one clerk, for which no fee can be charged.

The trial of special assessment cases, of which there were 1,283 cases last year, and the clerk in addition to keeping the records of same is charged with the additional duty of certifying the same to the collectors of the various cities, towns, etc.

Judgment on delinquent taxes occupy the attention of the court and clerk during the July term of each year, and very often extends over to the September term of court, as in nearly all cases of objections filed to these judgments an appeal is prayed to the Supreme Court, either by the city or the objector, as the case may be.

In addition to the above are the election records, the County Court having sole jurisdiction of all matters pertaining to elections within the Election Commissioners' district.

The following is a statement of work done in 1895:

Lunatic cases filed.....	1,141
Dependent girls, cases filed.....	135
Dependent boys, cases filed.....	302
Deaf, dumb, blind, and feebled minded, cases filed.....	21
Pauper support, cases filed.....	136
Common law cases filed, being assignment appeal and insolvent cases.....	1,330
Naturalization papers issued.....	444
Special assessment cases filed.....	1,283
Objections filed.....	1,399
Affidavits made.....	81
Certified copies made.....	folios, 68,124
Adoption cases filed.....	13

The above summary shows merely the number of cases filed, etc., during the year, but does not show the actual work done in this office. As a matter of fact, the court has disposed of one law calendar containing 1,304 cases, the same being cases which had heretofore been filed in previous years, in addition to said law calendar. The court has also disposed of all special assessment cases filed during the year 1895, viz: 1,283 cases; also a number of cases continued from the previous year.

The County Court having sole jurisdiction in voluntary assignments, special assessment, insolvent debtors', lunatic, dependent boys' and girls,' support cases and delinquent taxes, and the same being nearly all emergency matters, it is somewhat difficult to make a clear and succinct statement of the amount of work done, as especially in voluntary assignments, the time of the court is sometimes wholly taken up for weeks, and even months, in the disposition of a single case.

REPORT OF STEPHEN D. GRIFFIN,

Clerk of Superior Court, Cook County.

SUITS INSTITUTED AND DISPOSED OF.

During the year nine thousand (9,000) suits were disposed of in the Superior Court, and eight thousand one hundred and twenty-two (8,122) new suits were instituted therein. This showing leaves the calendar of the court not much less crowded than it was in 1894.

PENDING SUITS.

At the close of 1895 numbered eleven thousand (11,000), and eleven hundred (1,100) people were naturalized through the machinery of the court.

THE PROFIT

Accruing to the county is evidenced by the amount paid to the County Treasurer from the Superior Court over and above all expenses, aggregating forty thousand five hundred and thirty-seven dollars ($40,537.00).

REPORT OF E. J. MAGERSTADT,

Clerk of the Criminal Court.

During the last few years, there being a general stagnation of business, and various other causes may have led to an increase of offenses against the law of a criminal nature, and in consequence the Criminal Courts have been burdened with cases, which naturally increases the work in the Clerk's Office; during the year 1895 there were 3,671 indictments returned by the various Grand Juries, and in addition thereto there were 2,444 "No Bills" which must be entered in a proper manner in the Books at the Clerk's Office, as a matter of Record; the indictments returned are in some instances very voluminous and contain as much as one hundred pages and more, in a few cases there were from fifteen to twenty defendants, and inasmuch as the law requires a copy of each indictment to be made in each and every case, for each and every department before they can be arraigned, such work cannot be allowed to accumulate, and a force of never less than twelve men are constantly at work for this branch of the service.

The various branches of the Criminal Court tried 4,120 cases during the year 1895, of which number 1,710 were convicted of the crime with which they were charged. The number of acquittals, including nolle prosequere and striking from the docket with leave to reinstate, amounted to 2,410; during the same year there were 1,507 bonds for defendants approved by the Court, which are in addition to an unprecedented large number of bonds sent from Police Magistrates, and exceeded by far any year in the history of Criminal Court proceedings of Cook County, all of which have to be indexed in alphabetical order, and filed, and involving a large amount of clerical labor.

When we further take in consideration that the complete record in over 5,000 cases has been written, under the old style of Common Law form, which is still in use in this State, and which augments the amount of clerical labor, without adding anything to a correct and concise understanding of the case, it is comparatively easy to comprehend the extent and the magnitude of the work accomplished by this office.

It is no exaggeration to state that the office of the Clerk of the Criminal Court of Cook County stands at the present time at the top of all County Offices for efficiency in its staff of Deputies; Mr. Ernest J. Magerstadt, the present Clerk of the Criminal Court has the peculiar faculty of selecting the right man in the right place; in addition thereto he can be congratulated in securing the services of Mr. Wm. C. Lawson for his Chief Deputy; a gentleman who is eminently well qualified to conduct the business at all times, intricate affairs of such an important office to the satisfaction of all concerned, especially to the gentlemen of the legal profession, whose business, or rather the business of their clients, brings them into daily intercourse with the office.

REPORT OF STATE'S ATTORNEY.

Review of the Business Transacted.

The growth of the criminal business of Cook County during the last decade has been commensurate with the growth of the County in other respects. Since 1885 the criminal business of Cook County has increased over 200 per cent. From December 1, 1892, to December 1, 1895, a period of three years, the Grand Jury, under the direction of the State's Attorney, disposed of over six thousand cases more than during any four years in the history of the County.

At the commencement of the administration of Mr. Kern there were fifteen hundred bail cases undisposed of pending before the Grand Jury and upon which indictment had not been found. Such an accumulation of bonds made it necessary for a case to lie in the office of the Clerk of the Criminal Court for nearly a year before it was reached by the Grand Jury. During November, 1895, and at least ten months before that date, there were heard, in addition to the jail cases, every bail case wherein the bond had been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Criminal Court three days prior to their respective adjournments of the Grand Juries.

As a result of having the bail cases heard before the Grand Jury as fast as they are filed in the office of the Clerk of the Criminal Court, the percentage of indictments in bail cases is as great as in that of jail cases. Prior to the administration of Mr. Kern there were indictments in only 5 per cent of the bail cases. During the administration of the present State's Attorney there have been indictments and convictions in 50 per cent of the bail cases. The business of the Criminal Court of Cook County is now up to date. There are practically no bail cases pending untried or uncalled except the indictments of the last Grand Jury.

It has been the policy of this administration to insist that at least 50 per cent of the indictments of any one Grand Jury shall be tried before the assembling of the next Grand Jury. The current year, from January 1, 1895, to January 1, 1896, will show the largest business and the largest percentage of convictions in the history of any county in the United States.

A complete revolution has been made in dealing with the defendants under bail. In former years, prior to 1892, the judgment of the Criminal Court upon a forfeited bail bond was considered a matter of so little importance that the abstract-makers did not note it in their examination of title. The forfeiture of a bail bond meant the complete escape of the person charged with crime. It seemed to the present State's Attorney that no such immunity ought to obtain in a proper administration of the criminal law. That the poor or friendless defendant should not, by reason of his inability to give bail, be subjected to punishment, while the defendant on bail should escape punishment, or trial, by simply forfeiting his bond. Out of the thousands of bail bonds taken in the Criminal Court during the last three years, not over 5 per cent of the persons on bail have failed to appear for trial. Three years ago at this time there were over seven hundred people in jail. Today the number does not exceed four hundred and fifty. Certainty and swiftness of punishment is slowly driving the criminals into other great cities. There is no place on earth where criminal justice is meted out more swiftly than under the present administration in Cook County.

REPORT OF CLERK OF PROBATE COURT.

Financial and Business Report of the Clerk of the Probate Court.

By an act of the Legislature, approved April 27, 1877, as amended by an act approved May 24, and in force July 1, 1881, Probate Courts were established in all counties in the State of Illinois having a population of 70,000 or more.

Thus far the citizens of only two counties, Cook and Peoria, are entitled, by virtue of their population, to take advantage of this act. The idea that the Probate Court would be an advantage to the bar and to the people led to its establishment. That it has been an advantage to both, far greater than was expected, there is no question. From the time the functions of the Probate and County Courts were separated, the business of the former has showed a marked and wonderful increase.

The public occasionally sees a newspaper item stating that a certain estate had been admitted to probate, or that the estate of some well-known citizen had been inventoried at a certain sum; but further than this the great populace of Cook County knows little or nothing. Yet the Probate Court transacts more business during the year than the majority of our business houses. Property representing millions of dollars passes through this court every twelve months. The administration of vast estates, great property interests, the education and care of thousands of children, and the supervision of the estates of the drunkard, spendthrift and insane come under its jurisdiction.

To handle this immense volume of business the County Board allows forty-four clerks, as follows: One chief clerk, three assistants to the Judge, one cashier, five record writers, one fee and process clerk and one assistant, one minute clerk, two general clerks, two docket clerks, one claim clerk, one citation clerk and one assistant, one transcript clerk, one comparer, three vault clerks, two stenographers, one grant clerk and sixteen recording clerks.

There is not an unimportant position in the above list. One of the assistants to the Judge is responsible for the approval of all bonds and the accuracy of the proofs of all wills and heirships; another for the value of every estate as shown by the inventory and appraisement and for all matters of real estate, and the third for the closing up of all estates and the approval of final accounts. The latter must see that all claims against estates are paid and that justice is done to all parties in interest. The minute clerk must enter the orders which the Judge makes with absolute correctness. An error would work great hardship and perhaps cause infinite trouble. The docket clerk must be equally accurate. If the vault clerk should place a paper in the wrong file, untold labor would be entailed in its recovery. If the citation clerk sends the Sheriff for a person who is not liable for a citation, he commits a most serious mistake. The claim clerk must see that all claims filed for adjustment in a certain term are on the claim docket at the proper time and that none are on not so filed. The record writer must use the utmost care in order that there may be no flaw in the record, which is of greater importance, if possible, than anything else connected with the office. And so on through the list; every position is responsible; every man knows his duty and does it.

The Probate Court is a court of detail. This is true of any county office, but especially so with this. The process necessary to issue a citation will best illustrate this point. A citation is a writ issued out of the Court requiring a person to appear before the Court and show cause why a certain thing has or has not been done. The citation clerk examines first, the docket to see what estates are liable to citation and makes a list of the same. Second, he goes through the indexes of the estates for the file numbers. Third, gets out the files and examines every paper in each estate to see if there are any papers on file which makes a citation unnecessary. Fourth, writes the writs. Fifth, puts the seal on them. Sixth, enters them in the process docket. Seventh, enters them in the fee book and gets addresses of parties cited. Eighth, enters them in his private record. Ninth, enters them in the minute book. Tenth, enters them in the docket. Eleventh, makes bills of cost and delivers writs to Sheriff. Twelfth, on return day enters Sheriff's fees and takes the writs before the Court. Thirteenth, files the writs. Fourteenth, enters return in process docket. Fifteenth, enters Sheriff's fees in fee book. Sixteenth, writes the record of the whole proceeding. Sixteen different processes, and all the public sees is a piece of paper called a citation. The same rule of detail runs through every department.

At the head of this important branch of our County government is the Clerk of the Court, Abijah O. Cooper. He was elected Nov. 6, 1894, and took charge of the office on Dec. 3 of the same year. He brought to his new position a business experience of twenty years and a record for honesty and integrity in business and as a leader of men that has only been emphasized by his public career thus far. He is a man of energy, education and ability. A close observer, capable of great application and full of resources. He entered upon his new duties as he had entered upon every undertaking in life, with the determination to succeed, and, as in everything else, he has succeeded. Under his able direction and his faculty of discrimination shown in selecting the right man for the right place, he has improved the workings of the entire office. Each department is like a portion of a great machine, every piece having its special work but each depending on the other.

Being a man of action, he made few promises as to what he intended to do, but at the end of his first year in office he has turned over to the Board of County Commissioners the most satisfactory annual statement that ever came from the Probate Court.

The following is a comparative statement of the business of the office during the last year of Mr. Cooper's predecessor and the first year of his own administration. The most significant item in it is that in addition to paying all the expenses of his office he turned over to the County Treasurer $29,731.63, being $12,861.84 more than was turned over by his predecessor the year before.

REPORT OF JAMES PEASE,

Sheriff of Cook County.

A GIGANTIC OFFICE.

The incumbent of the shrievalty manages the most extensive and the most important office in the County. It embraces four large departments, each directed by a deputy sheriff. They are the Civil, County, and Criminal Courts, the County Jail and Executive Department. The work is increasing rapidly every year, that of 1895 being largely in excess of that of the preceding year.

LARGEST IN THE UNITED STATES.

Cook County requires a greater force of assistants in the Sheriff's Office than is demanded by the needs of New York or Philadelphia. The office was created in 1831, with James Kinzie as the first Sheriff, holding office for one year; receipts under him were about two hundred and fifty dollars ($250).

SUCCESSIVE INCUMBENTS.

James Forbes succeeded Sheriff Kinzie in 1832, and was succeeded in 1834 by Silas W. Sherman. Then followed in 1838 (after two terms), Isaac R. Gavin; in 1840, Ashbel Steele; in 1842, Samuel J. Lowe; in 1846 and 1848, Isaac Cook; in 1850, William L. Church; in 1852, Cyrus P. Bradley; 1854, James Andrews (died in 1855); 1855, James S. Beach; 1856, John L. Wilson; 1858, John Gray; 1860, A. C. Hesing; 1862, David Hammond; 1864, J. L. Beveridge; 1870, Ben Cleaves; 1872, J. M. Bradly; 1874, Francis Agnew; 1876, Charles Keni; 1878, John Hoffman; 1880, O. L. Mann; 1882, Seth F. Hanchett; 1886, C. R. Matson; 1890, J. R. Gilbert; 1894, James Pease.

SYNOPSIS OF BUSINESS, 1895.

The record of the Cook County Jail takes precedence and shows: Total number of prisoners booked in 1895, 5,827—452 were conveyed to Joliet, 337 to Pontiac, 2 to Chester, 1 to Northern Hospital, 352 to House of Correction, 131 had Jail sentences, 49 were incarcerated in the Debtors' Department and 17 were sent to Homes for Juvenile Offenders at Geneva. This makes a total of their delinquents of 1,321.

CASES OF INSANITY.

Thirty-two thousand and two (32,002) miles were covered in trying and conveying insane persons to different State institutions. The total number of arrests were 1,199, and the cases tried were 1,114. There were 649 pauper cases and 485 other kinds. 588 were taken to Jefferson, 164 to Elgin, 113 to Kankakee, and 77 were cared for by friends.

WRITS RECEIVED AND DISPOSED OF.

There were as follows:

Mesne process, 21,555; executions, 8,700; Criminal Courts, 41,853; Civil Courts, 38,083. Total, 110,191 writs of all kinds.

CRIMINAL COURT BUSINESS.

Capiases issued to the extent of 8,053—7,706 arrests were made, 40,121 subpoenas served, 30,386 jurors summoned, 1,475,715 miles were traveled and $163,-434.49 was earned in fees.

CIRCUIT, SUPERIOR AND COUNTY COURTS.

The work of this department shows a marked increase over that of similar periods of previous year.

The increase in the number of arrests made arises largely from the fact that in a majority of cases in which the defendant is admitted to bail the bonds are forfeited and the defendants arrested as many as three times before a final disposition is made of the case.

REPORT OF COUNTY TREASURER.

The duties of the County Treasurer are to act as Custodian of the County funds, to pay out moneys on the order of the County Board, to receive money paid in on orders from the various Courts, and pay them out on proper instructions ; but this is only a very small part of his duties. As Ex-Officio County Collector he is the official upon whom devolves the task of collecting all taxes and special assessments levied in the County, and it is this position which makes his office so responsible and onerous.

STATE AND COUNTY TAXES.

There are thirty-three towns in this County, each with a full set of town officers, viz. : Assessor, Collector, supervisor, and Town Clerk. The Assessor of each town gets from the County Clerk in March of each year a list of all the taxable real estate in his town and after placing a valuation upon each lot or tract of land returns his books to the County Clerk. After the returns are all in the County Board examines them and equalizes the valuation of both real and personal property, having the authority to add to or deduct from the valuation of both or either class of property in any town, but without changing the aggregate valuation in the County. After the books are examined and proved by the County Clerk, a statement of the valuation of the county is sent to the State Auditor at Springfield and by him laid before State Board of Equalization, which meets in August each year and whose duty it is to equalize the valuation as between Counties on real and personal property, and to fix the valuation of all railroad property in the State. These gentlemen invariably add largely to the valuation of Cook County, the rates of addition made being in 1894 as follows : Lots 18 per cent, lands 39 per cent, personal property 43 per cent. In 1895 : Lots 17 per cent, lands 20 per cent, personal property 19 per cent. When the work of the State Board is finished its result is certified to the County Clerk, and on the valuation thus established the rates are made and the taxes extended in the various towns. When the warrants for a town are finished they are turned over to the Collector after his bond (which must be double the amount of the total taxes extended) has been filed and he holds possession of the books and collects taxes until the 10th of March, when his commission expires, and he then prepares his delinquent lists and turns his book over to the County Collector. As they collect up to March 10 and as in some of the towns there is a great deal of labor involved in making the delinquent list, the warrants are not all in the hands of the County Collector, examined, proved and ready to be placed in collection before the 1st of April. On that date special assessments must be returned, and to mark these up on the warrants and check them back, so as to be able to give bills for everything there may be against a given piece of property, requires about ten days working night and day, and as a penalty of 1 per cent is added on May 1, which everybody is anxious to escape, every night and every Sunday during the month of April and the first half of May finds every clerk in the Collector's office (and many outsiders pressed into service) at work. Every bill left in the office with check before May 1 escapes the penalty, and it takes working as above stated, days, nights and Sundays, until the middle of May to work off these accumulations and attend to the daily business over the counter.

Under the law the Collector applies to the County Court each year at the July term for judgment and order for sale on all unpaid real estate taxes and special assessments, and just as soon as the above work is done a large force is put on at night from 5:00 to 11:30 copying for the printers and making the judgment record. Some idea may be formed of the amount of this labor when we say that the delinquent list last year filled 141 pages of the Chicago Mail, seven columns to the page, and that the tax judgment and redemption record embraced 185 volumes, averaging 150 pages each.

On the second Monday in July each year the Collector applies to the County Court for judgment, and early in August the tax sale commences on all property on which judgment has been rendered, which sale generally runs into December each year before it is finished. The accompanying table will show the number of certificates issued and amount of sales in 1895 for general taxes and for each taxing corporation that returned delinquent special assessments that year.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.

For collecting regular taxes the County Collector gets 1 per cent and the same for special assessments, which involves five times as much labor, and in the case of assessments levied on the installment plan much more than that. Under the law the collection of special assessments cannot be enforced unless they are in the hands of the County Collector by April 1, and the majority of all cities, towns and villages making assessments wait until the last day, forcing the work of marking them up on the regular tax warrants on the office at a time when it is already crowded with work. There are outside of the three Park Records in the County over thirty corporations authorized to levy assessments, and nearly all of them take advantage of their rights, and the number of assessments returned, especially by the country villages, is increasing from year to year.

The following table will show the amount of general taxes returned for collections in 1895, and the number of volumes and also the number of warrants and amount of special assessments returned:

RAILROAD TAXES.

The valuation of each road in the County is made by the State Board of Equalization for the following classes of property:

(1) Main track right of way and improvements on right of way; (2) second track; (3) side track; (4) rolling stock; (5) personal property other than rolling stock; and by them certified to the County Clerk, and the taxes extended by towns and villages in the same way and on the same rates as real and personal property. Real estate outside of the right of way is assessed by the local Assessor at the same rate of valuation as other real property. The railroad tax warrants, when finished by the County Clerk, are given directly to the County Collector instead of passing through the hands of the Town Collectors. The following table will show the amount of railroad taxes extended for 1895:

COOK COUNTY RECORDER.

From the earliest history of the human family it has been the ambition of mankind to acquire land. Once acquired and a home established, the true man will fight until his last drop of blood has been drunk by the soil in order to protect it. Such being the importance of the ownership of real estate, it is but natural that great care is used to prevent the possibility of its loss. Among all the laws of this or any other civilized country where a good government exists, those relating to matters of realty have ever been the most carefully provided, and the laws in regard to the recording of papers which affect land are the most important in the statutes for the reason that all such instruments must be recorded to make them legal.

The Recorder's office, then, by reason of the generally accepted value of realty, is without any doubt the most important department of a municipal government. Chicago, large as she is, and great as she is, is still but an infant in maturity as compared with many of the other large cities of this country or of the old world, and yet the Recorder's office of Cook County is the most extensive, the most complete and the most ably conducted of any such County institution in the world. The reasons for this are so apparent to any one who will take the pains to look into the matter, that no doubt of the truth of the statement can be harbored in the mind of any one for a minute. Chicago has leaped into the second position as regards size with such phenomenal rapidity that her sisters look upon her in wonder, and while those which have been outstripped in the race, grudgingly admit her greatness, and the one which still outnumbered her in population trembles for its laurels, they all acknowledge her as the eighth wonder of the world.

While Chicago has grown rapidly and steadily her real estate has been more a matter of speculation than could be possible in an old and thoroughly established city. It was but a few years ago that all of the city was embraced within some half dozen of her present blocks, having the site of the County building for a common center. Year by year she has radiated out until today one of her streets extends in a straight line for nearly twenty-five miles without going beyond the city limits, and her total area reaches nearly 200 square miles.

This constant extension indicates frequent purchases of land, and these purchases all mean business for the office of the Recorder.

Although this institution was established some time before the fire, that terrible calamity destroyed all records, and the office, as it is today, practically dates from the time of the great conflagration. And a proud record it has made. Over 5,500 books are there to be found, and as each book contains 500 pages it shows that at least 2,750,000 instruments have been filed since the fire. The filing cases in this office are all fire proof and are of the latest improved pattern, they being the product of the Fenton Metallic Mfg. Co. of Jamestown, N. Y., who have in the main furnished Cook County with their filing and book cases.

To do the work of this office requires a great many hands and the list of employes now foots up to 225. This force is rather larger than it was under past administrations, but the enlargement has been made necessary by the increase of documents to be filed, and also by the necessity of getting the work done with more expedition than formerly. It used to take three weeks to put a single instrument through the various rooms, whereas now, under the improved system, and with the increased force, it is done in ten days' time.

As will be seen, it is matters of real estate that constitute the bulk of the work of the Recorder's office, but it also has to deal with the mortgages of personal property, and some faint idea of what the amount of labor is, may be had when it is stated that one man often enters one hundred instruments a day for filing.

The papers of all kinds filed in 1895 amounted to 173,782. Nothing is ever filed in this office that is in any way obscene. The different classes of instruments this department has to deal with embraces bills of sale, tax deeds, warrantee deeds, trust claim deeds, trust deeds, releases, mortgages, chattel mortgages, charters, voluntary assignments.

Of course there are some slack days. The weather affects the business of this office very materially, as when it is storming or cold people do not go out to look at property, and the consequence is the sales are light and the clerks get a breathing spell. As high as $1,650 has been received in this office in one day, and when it is considered that the fees are none of them large for the work done, it will be admitted that at times it taxes energies of the 225 employes to get through with the duties. There are two windows, the "Receiving" and "Delivery," through which the business of the recording office is transacted, with two clerks at the first and four at the second. The abstract business is an important feature, as the law requires that at any time the public may ask for an abstract of title. This work has greatly increased since the decision of the Supreme Court making abstracts from this department merchantable. The vaults, too, where the public are permitted to examine the books, necessitates the attendance of many clerks.

All the business of the Recorder's office is done in different departments which, outside of the Recorder himself, number eight. Samuel B. Chase is the Recorder. Under him are W. C. Niehoff, in charge of the receiving and delivery department; Theodore Nelson, chief deputy; A. L. Brown, cashier; Julius Ludwig, superintendent folio department; P. A. Hines, superintendent abstract department; M. P. Hartney, superintendent vault department; H. L. Herbert, superintendent map department; J. L. Cochran, receiving clerk, and Daniel Degan, delivery clerk.

It may be of interest to many to know the inside workings of a well-managed and complete Recorder's office. In the first place it should be understood that all papers connected with real estate or personal property must be recorded. In following, say a deed, through its course before it is ready for delivery it will have to go first to the receiving clerk, who numbers and dates it with the day of the month, the day of the week and the hour it is received. From there the deed goes to the original entry clerk, in same room, in whose book are entered the names of both the grantor and the grantee. The next move is to the grantor book and then to the grantee book. These books are alphabetically indexed and are for the general convenience of the public. After this the instrument goes to Room 11, where tract index sheets are made, and then to Room 28 to be compared with the tract index sheets by the comparers. From here to Room 10 it goes and is there put in the hands of a clerk to distribute to the folio writers. Before leaving this room the instrument is compared with the folio writer's work and is then charged to the delivery department in Room 7 in a numbered book especially kept for that purpose. Then back to Room 7 the instrument is taken for the signature of the Recorder and to be entered in a special book known under the name of "book and paging." This is a book which gives the number and page of other books. Then the distribution is made to alphabetically arranged boxes.

One of the features of this department is the box system. These small compartments are rented to regular customers of the Recorder's office in order to facilitate the work. The papers passing through the department are put in these customer boxes, if they have one, and are charged to that box as well as the individual. This system saves a great amount of trouble, both on the part of the office and the customer. When it is called for it is charged to the party in the delivery book.

The endeavor is made to get as many checks on an instrument as possible, not only to avoid mistakes but to detect them if made. If an error is discovered a postal card is sent to the interested party notifying him of the fact. This is purely a gratuitous act, no law of the department requiring it to be done.

The work of the department is somewhat facilitated by having in the books printed blanks for the ordinary statutory documents which only need to be filled in.

The map department is one of the principal features of this office, and it is here that property is first platted, and the map department of the County Clerk's office take their maps from the office of the records. The greatest care possible is taken to prevent the recording of forgeries, and as a protection against the danger of unscrupulous people making changes in entries in the books, no one is allowed to take a pen and ink into the vaults.

The Recorder's office in this County affords a revenue to the County instead of being an expense. It is more than self supporting, and under the able management of Recorder Chase and the heads of the various departments it constantly grows in usefulness. Under the present management it is certainly a pleasure to do business there, as expedition is made a feature and courtesy and polite attention are met with on every hand.

THE NEW COOK COUNTY JAIL.

From a humanitarian point of view it is doubtless unfortunate that such things as jails are necessary. But they are necessary and they have been from the earliest days of mankind. Being, then, a needful adjunct of social conditions, it becomes advisable to have such institutions built and arranged on the best possible plans. To do this it is necessary to have a man at the helm who knows his business and who has made a study of the needs of human frailty in this line.

For this vicinity, for the County of Cook, such a man was found in County Commissioner Thomas J. McNichols. He was brought into prominence by the excellent ideas he advanced and the energy with which he pushed the scheme of having the water mains conducted to the county institution at Dunning. It is acknowledged to be a fact that no other feature in connection with this establishment has been so beneficial or has contributed so much to ameliorate the condition of the afflicted consigned there. If anything else were needed to prove its value, the recent fire in the laundry at this institution should be sufficient. The fact that there was plenty of water at hand with which to fight the fire went a long way in saving the institutions from a total loss, and not only saved the tax payers of Cook County from financial loss, but saved the inmates from much suffering. This was all the result of the labors of Mr. McNichols, who, with it almost seems a prophetic eye, saw the calamity coming and inaugurated the plan of salvation.

Mr. McNichols was made chairman of the building committee for the county buildings, and no better choice could have been made in consideration of the fact that a new jail was in contemplation. Mr. McNichols was the right man in the right place, for he had made a study of the business and he knew just what was wanted.

Long ago it had been recognized as a fact that the old jail in Chicago was very far from meeting its requirements and that a new building was necessary. At a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, held in January, 1895, the following resolution was passed :

"WHEREAS, The building now occupied as a jail is wholly inadequate for the use of the county, and is a constant menace to the lives and health of the prisoners, as well as the officers and guards employed there. Prisoners with dangerous and contagious diseases are confined in the same cell with well persons, and the conditions are such as should not exist in any civilized community."

Much followed this, but all to the effect that a new jail was needed. The resolution was adopted and the next move was to secure a plan for the institution. The county architect and the superintendent of public service were instructed to advertise for bids. Finally these bids were opened and among the successful bidders were Edward J. Molloy, E. Heldmaier & Co., August Zander Company, James A. Miller & Bro., and the Evans Marble Co.

Edward J. Molloy had the contract for the masonry work. The reputation of Mr. Molloy is well known, and the excellence of his methods was never more clearly shown than in the foundations and walls he put up for this new jail. Without completion, without a roof, or, for that matter, without anything like an adequate protection, the walls and foundations have stood all winter without settling in the least. This, in Chicago, where rock bottom is so far to reach, can only be expressed as the work of an expert.

There is no feature of any building which attracts so much attention as the stone work. E. Heldmaier & Co. have in this line achieved a great reputation, and it has only been increased by what they have done in connection with the new jail.

In the construction of a building there are many things of importance which do not show on the surface. One of these features is the lathing and plastering. This work was entrusted to the August Zander Company, and these people used both the Turnbull & Cullerton steel lath and the Monarch fire-proof lath, manufactured by the Nowak Construction Company. This material has been found to be admirable for the purpose, and is not only a great credit to the inventor, but to the contractors who use it.

The roof of any building is as important a feature as any other part. James A. Miller & Bro. have made a study of this, and their roofing and sheet metal work has attracted the attention of builders all over the country.

There is no reason why even an institution for the confinement of criminals should not be to a certain extent embellished. While it is not necessary nor desirable that this feature should prevail to the same extent as in a private residence, there is no reason why it should be entirely excluded from the plans of such a building as the Cook County Jail. It was for this reason that the Evans Marble Company were given the contract for the decorative mosaic work in this building. It was the excellence of their work in other places which secured for them this contract. It goes without saying that such a firm, with a good reputation to sustain, would not fail to do themselves credit in a contract on so important a building as the Cook County Jail.

SALARY APPROPRIATIONS FOR 1896.

One of the important and interesting features in connection with the County Institutions is the number of employes, their duties and the salary each one receives. This is particularly interesting matter to the public, and it is the duty of every tax payer to make a study of it, as it is from his pocket the money comes.

General Contractor for All Kinds of Public Buildings

218 Builders and Traders Exchange, Chicago.

Among the recent public buildings erected by Mr. Molloy, the new Cook County Jail (which is reproduced on page 37 of this publication) is considered by experts to be a first-class building in every particular, one that will prove entirely satisfactory to the tax payers and citizens of Cook County. This building has been standing all of the past winter without a roof without causing the least injury or settling in any part of the building. This may be accepted as conclusive proof of the solid character of the foundation and superstructure.

THE MAGIC WHEEL OF '96

WHY DID THE

DAYTON WHEEL

BOOM SO SUDDENLY IN AMERICA?

FIRST—It was the first to use large tubing for the main frame.

SECOND—It proved itself Stiffer, Stronger, Faster and Handsomer than all competitors.

THIRD—It was not placed on the market until fully perfected and tested by the best bicycle experts, who pronounce it the finest wheel ever built.

FOURTH—The best and most complete line of strictly high-grade Gents' and Ladies' Wheels, Racers, Tandems and Triplets ever shown by any manufacturer in this country.

THE DAYTON has revolutionized bicycle construction of '96. Visit Dayton Sales Parlors, most elegant in city, 340 Wabash Ave. Branch, 74 Washington St.
